INJURIES SERIOUS

Child Met With Accident at French American Orphanage

She Was Struck by Dumb Waiter—She Has Concussion of the Brain, a Broken Jaw and Internal Injuries—Her Condition is Quite Critical

Irene Bordeleau, aged 15 years, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gedeon Bordeleau of 102 Dingwell street, is in a bad condition in St. John's hospital, suffering from wounds received in an accident which occurred this morning at the French American orphanage in Pawtucket street.

The young girl who is an inmate of the institution was struck by a dumb waiter which is being used to carry up food from the kitchen to the dining room. The girl was looking down the slide when the dumb waiter loaded with hot soup, potatoes, rice, etc., was lowered from the second floor to the basement.

She was caught between the partition of the slide and the elevator, and was badly burned about the arms and forearms by the boiling soup which spilled all over her. The Sisters rushed to her rescue and a hurried call for the ambulance was sent in. The unfortunate child was rushed to St. John's hospital, where the attending physician, after examination, said that the patient was suffering from a compound fracture of the jaw, concussion of the brain, severe burns about the arms and internal injuries.

It is not expected that she will recover. The Sisters in charge of the orphanage are heart broken over the accident, and they stated to a Sun reporter this morning that they cannot explain the reason why the young girl was looking down the slide, except that she did it thoughtlessly.

Miss Bordeleau had been in the orphanage for some time and was well liked both by the Sisters and children of the institution.

ROBBED IN STORM

Man Was Held Up at the Point of a Revolver

BOSTON, Feb. 3.—Held up at the point of a revolver while he was driving through Eastern avenue, Chelsea, yesterday afternoon, two robbers attacked Winifred H. French of Lynn, a driver for the Fash Ice Cream company.

With a threat that he had over what money he had in his possession or suffer the consequences of a severe beating French complied and handed over $3.

The robbers, who had jumped onto the footboard of the wagon to secure the booty then left, warning French not to tell the police, and escaped to East Boston.

It was one of the boldest, if not the boldest, daylight robbery in Chelsea in many years and Chief Shannon and every member of the force were active yesterday afternoon and last night in their efforts to apprehend the men.

ATTACK EXPECTED

All Business Suspended by Order of the Mayor

EL PASO, Texas, Feb. 3.—The city of Juarez spent the night in momentary anticipation of attack by insurgents. Early reports declared that the rebel commander, General Orozco, had notified the local authorities and the foreign consuls of his intention to bombard the town at 3 o'clock this afternoon. Toward midnight rumors gained circulation to the effect that the hour was 3 o'clock in the morning. It was also declared that the rebel messenger who was carrying the announcement to the German and American consuls had been arrested by federal officers and was being held incommunicado. None of these reports had official confirmation. There was little fear of the threatened "shelling" of the city, however, for so far as known the insurgents had no artillery capable of bombarding the city. The situation at Juarez remained tense, however, and federal officers were busy making preparations to meet the proposed attack. As daybreak approached no news came to indicate that the insurgents were in the immediate vicinity of Juarez, and the general opinion prevailed that the expected attack would not materialize until some hours later. The guard of United States troops at the two bridges connecting Juarez with El Paso was doubled during the night to prevent any insurgents from the Texas side crossing the Rio Grande.

A Mexican Northwestern passenger train arrived here during the night from Casas Grandes, whence it had been ordered to bring Colonel Rabago's command to the relief of Juarez. The soldiers did not come with it, however, as the train crew refused to hand them. The train was twice halted and inspected by insurgents. At 3.15 a. m. the threatened attack failed to materialize. At this hour all is quiet and there is no sign of the insurgent advance.

There were no new developments in Ciudad, Juarez, at 5 a. m. The city was absolutely quiet with no indication of an attack on the part of the insurgents, who are camped a few miles south of the city. Four of the police force of Juarez deserted to this city. The two banks doing business in Juarez have been moved to El Paso and the postoffice has also been moved to the Texas side of the river.

Fire broke out in Juarez during the night, but it was confined to a gambling establishment through the work of the El Paso fire department. No effort was made by the Juarez fire department to combat the flames, which would have been extremely disastrous but for the work of El Paso firemen.

It is now believed the attack on the city will not be made until some time this afternoon.

The federal force at Juarez is about 350. Reinforcements numbering about 250 are on their way from Casas Grandes. The insurgents' strength is estimated about 600; with 500 additional men reported to be enroute.

At 10 o'clock this morning the mayor of Juarez ordered all places of business closed. American and other foreign flags were at once put out by the foreign residents. The consuls had not expected any notice of an attack, but the mayor declined to say why he issued the closing order.

ONE MAN KILLED

Carfloat Crashed Into the Fall River Liner Plymouth

NEW YORK, Feb. 3.—Three hundred passengers aboard the Fall River liner Plymouth, from Fall River, were thrown into a panic this forenoon when a carfloat, loaded with freight cars and towed by a tugboat, crashed into the vessel in the East river, off 62nd street. The steamer's passengers escaped injury but General Manager Nickerson of the Fall River line received word that a man on the float had been killed by the crash.

The man killed was Frank Thomas, a deckhand on the float. The shock of the collision tilted the float, causing several of the cars to slide on the tracks. Thomas was thrown to the deck of the float across the tracks and one of the cars ran over him, killing him instantly.

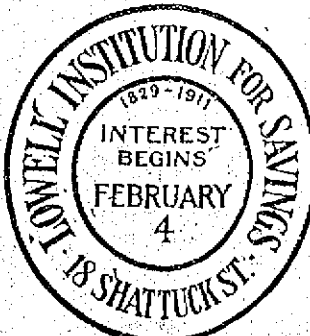

A large, jagged hole in the Plymouth's port bow gives mute testimony to the violence of the collision. The Plymouth was not damaged below the water line, however, and proceeded under her own power to her dock. General Manager Nickerson charges the blame of the crash to the captain of a deckhand on the float. The shock

BIG FIRE BROKE OUT IN LEE

LEE, Feb. 3.—A very high wind and a temperature of five degrees below zero hampered the firemen of this town today in fighting a blaze that destroyed two business blocks on Main street in the heart of the business district. One of the blocks was of brick, the other of wood and both were two-story structures. The property was owned by St. George's Episcopal church. The fire originated in the brick block in the novelty store of E. B. Ramsdell. The drug store of A. G. Hoebner was burned out and the tenants on the second floors lost all they had. All in the buildings had plenty of time in which to make their escape. The loss is estimated at between $30,000 and $40,000 with partial insurance.

LARCENY CHARGE

Man Held in $500 for the Grand Jury

Arthur Wilkinson, aged 21 years, was arrested last night by Inspector John A. Walsh, for alleged larceny of clothing, jewelry and money from a house in upper Market. It is alleged that Wilkinson, together with Herbert Emerson, who was arrested a few days ago by the police, rifled various houses in the Creek colony.

In court this morning Wilkinson was charged with breaking and entering and two counts of larceny. One count alleged that he stole a coat, pants, watch, chain, shirt, necktie, ring and money, all amounting to the value of $38.25, the property of Peter Carandrias, while in the second count he was charged with stealing a pair of shoes valued at $3, the property of John Laventis.

Inspector Walsh testified to arresting the young man last night, and found the latter wearing the stolen clothes and shoes. The watch and ring were pawned in Lawrence and in all probability will be recovered. Among the articles stolen was $25 in money. The inspector said he found two of the empty envelopes, but none of the money.

Probable cause of guilt was found by the court and the defendant was held under $500 for his appearance before the grand jury.

Stole Clothing
Herbert Emerson was charged with the larceny of a coat and pair of trousers, seven razors, three pairs of shears and $1 in postage stamps, the property of Napoleon Jacques, and also the larceny of a razor, the property of John Gump.

Napoleon Jacques, who is a barber and resides in Brackton, came to this city recently and worked at his trade. During his stay in this city he occupied a room in a house in Appleton street and one day while he was at work his room was taken and the clothing and barber tools stolen.

Emerson had no defense to offer in this case, but in the complaint charging him with stealing the razor from John Gurnick he denied his guilt, claiming that he found the razor.

He was continued under $500 bonds for his appearance tomorrow morning for sentence.

Held on Suspicion
Frank Carron, William Carney, Jas. Thompson and James Tierney were arraigned on complaints charging them with drunkenness, but at the request of the government sentence was deferred until tomorrow as the police want to

DIPHTHERIA EPIDEMIC MANY MEN AT WORK

Raging in Fitchburg With 650 As a Result of the Snow Cases Reported Storm Yesterday

FITCHBURG, Feb. 3.—The epidemic of diphtheria which now has Fitchburg in its grip, with more than 650 cases already reported to the board of health, caused Mayor Frederick O'Connell to call a special meeting of the city government last night.

At this meeting Dr. G. Sidney Wood, one of the most prominent physicians in this city, was appointed a member of the board of health, to act as its executive officer, and take full charge of the situation. At the same meeting the resignation of Dr. Alfred O. Mitchell was accepted.

The present epidemic is the worst outbreak of the disease in any city in this state.

A hospital for the isolation of the more serious cases was opened yesterday.

One case located was that of a little Greek girl, the daughter of Mrs. Constantina Adams. The health agent, Fred R. Houghton, ordered her removal to the hospital.

When the ambulance arrived the girl's mother, after admitting the officer and the ambulance attendants, suddenly realized their purpose and rushing upon them with an ax, drove them out.

It was not until some time later, after a squad of officers had broken in the door and by their number scared the mother, that the little patient was started on her way to the hospital.

How well it feels to be able to walk about the streets of the city without being blinded by the dust that has been flying around for the past few weeks! The snow storm which prevailed in this city all day yesterday is the cause of this change, which is for the better.

The snow not only killed the germs which were abundant about our streets, but has also secured work for a number of idle men, who were greatly in need. The street department has put on an extra shift of men to clean the gutters and spread the snow in the different streets of the city. The Boston & Northern also had a gang of men at work on the plows and shovels, some of them working a part of the night to keep the rails clean. The result was that the cars were running on schedule time all forenoon.

The merchants have been complaining for some time that business was poor, but a little snow on the ground will certainly boom things up some, especially in the shoe and garment line. Several of the local merchants stated this morning that yesterday, although quite stormy, was one of the busiest days of the season. The coal and wood dealers are also relieving over the storm, although business has been fairly good with them for the last two months.

The doctors and undertakers who have been kept very busy since fall will probably find a decrease in their business, now that the snow has done away with the germs. The city is now in a better sanitary condition and let us hope that the ground will be covered with snow until springtime comes around.

BACHELOR CLUB

Minstrels to Give Big Show in Wakefield

The fame of the Twentieth Century Bachelor Minstrels is spreading. Next Friday night the Lowell boys will appear in Wakefield at the annual concert and ball of the Wakefield firemen. This is the big event of the year for the people of Wakefield and the surrounding towns, and in fact many guests from Boston attend. When the firemen's convention was held in this city, the Twentieth Century boys gave a fine minstrel vorture after the banquet that was tendered the visitors. Among the guests was the chief of the Wakefield fire department, and he was so pleased with the program offered that when he returned home he told the other firefighters about it, with the result that the local boys were invited to present their act at the annual ball of the department. This is quite a tribute to the local talent for heretofore the Wakefield department has always had big attractions from Boston and even from New York.

The members of the troop will go to Wakefield and return in a special car, and promise one of their best performances for the Wakefield people.

THOMAS O'HARE

HAS A SOUVENIR THAT HE PRIZES HIGHLY

Mr. Thomas O'Hare of this city has received from a friend of his who made a tour of the world on board the gunboat Petrel, a fine photograph that he prizes very highly and which is the only one in the city. It is a picture of the two gunboats, the Petrel and the Wheeling, taken in Genoa harbor, during the famous cruise made by these two vessels. It will be recalled that only last week it was reported that the Wheeling had been lost off the coast of Cuba, but later it turned out that the vessel was safe.

BOTH RESCUED $150,000 LOSS

Women Taken From a Big Fire in Baltimore Burning Building Today

LEOMINSTER, Feb. 3.—Firemen rescued Mrs. E. J. Peterson and her daughter Susie from the Jones building on Central street in this town, which was partly destroyed by fire early today. Both were unconscious when carried out of the three-story structure. A dozen other persons, scantily clad, rushed through smoke filled corridors to the street, where, for a short time, they stood exposed to a snowstorm. The blaze started from some unknown cause in a clothing store on the first floor conducted by R. F. Michelman. The loss is estimated at $20,000, fully covered by insurance.

If you want help at home or in your business, try The Sun "Want" column.

BALTIMORE, Feb. 3.—Fire of unknown origin today damaged the piers of the Baltimore Steam Packet Co. (Old Bay) on the Light street wharf to the extent of $150,000, fully covered by insurance. The entire superstructure of offices and the big tower were destroyed and the main portion of the building filled with freight was burned out.

HEAVY SENTENCE MAN FINED AND SENT TO JAIL ON LIQUOR CHARGE

BROCKTON, Feb. 3.—Sensational evidence in a liquor case was given by Patrolman P. Joseph McCarthy in a lengthy session of the police court yesterday, the patrolman testifying against Matthew J. Reilly of 1006 Main street. He said he presented evidence of an illegal sale made last October to Capt. George A. Tower, then city marshal, but no action was taken.

Reilly was found guilty on a charge of exposing and keeping liquor at a drug store at 100 Main street, fined $200 and sentenced to six months in the house of correction. He appealed and was held in $500.

Ralph D. Martin, of 11 Menlo street and Walter F. Murphy, 735 Center street were each found guilty on the same charge and each fined $100. They appealed and were held in $500. Martin and Murphy were clerks employed by Reilly, the police say.

EVENING DRESS

FOR FANS WHO ATTEND BOXING BOUTS

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 3.—Tony Biddle, the millionaire amateur boxer, has pulled a brand new one. He proposes to make it mandatory for persons attending boxing matches to attire themselves in full evening dress. Nothing doing on tuxedos or evening coats—it must be clawhammer and nothing else. And to show that he is in earnest, Tony declares that when he has guests at a public boxing show he compels them to don their "glad rags." Says he:

"Boxing has been looked down upon in this country for years. It is now coming into its own once again. The average fight fan of the olden days felt that he had to make some excuse and always falsified to his family at least about his destination. Pugilism was scorned and a man's wife was never told that he was going to see a boxing match."

In addition, everybody who went to a fight thought that he was entitled to be as tough as possible. The spirit of pugnaty was in the air and the average fight devotee thought he had to battle with his neighbors.

"There was too wide a gulf between the professional and amateur boxer, a gulf which we are now trying to bridge."

"This can be done by having men appear at the clubs in evening dress. It gives the game an air of gentility, and the sight of rows of men attired in this manner will act as a softening influence on their more truculent brothers."

"Take the clubs in Paris. There women see the hardest and toughest bouts. At the National Sporting club in London those downfalls are required to dress according to fashion."

Attempt to Place Responsibility for Explosion at Communipaw

NEW YORK, Feb. 3.—The efforts started yesterday by the New York and New Jersey officials to place responsibility for the fearful explosion at Communipaw on Wednesday which cost upwards of 30 lives and caused heavy property loss, resulted today in service of warrants issued late last night in connection with the investigation. Early today James Healing, owner of the destroyed lighter Katherine W., the powderboat on which dynamite was being towed from the New Jersey Central pier, when the explosion occurred, appeared at the city hall police station in Jersey City and gave himself up. Healing's name was on the list of those for whom the authorities announced warrants had been issued. The others on the list include certain officials of the Central railroad of New Jersey and of the E. I. DuPont De Nemours Powder Co. and individuals otherwise involved in the investigation. Besides Healing they are:

Louis Calidetta, dockmaster of pier number 7 of the Central railroad.
A. Hamilton, general freight agent of the Central.
J. M. Morris, freight agent of the Central at Communipaw.
R. A. or R. G. Morse, assistant manager of the E. I. DuPont De Nemours Co.
Fred Peters, manager of the company.

Charles Ritter, checker on pier 7. Captain Burr St. John, superintendent of transportation of the company. Healing had admitted that his boat had no license to carry explosives but declared that he had never thought one was required.

Other lines of investigation taken up by the authorities yesterday were continued today with unabated vigor. No additions to the list of dead or missing developed during the forenoon.

A BUSINESS WOMAN

Who Was Cured by Following a Neighbor's Advice Now Recommends the Same Treatment to Other Women.

Most women are subject to special forms of weakness and at one time or another need a safe reliable tonic for the blood.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are an ideal tonic for women as they are also useful in functional disorders and to the fact that ladies recommend them to one another is due the enormous popularity of this tonic remedy.

Mrs. Mary E. Ficus, of Coal City, Ind., is well known there as she was formerly editor of the "Coal City Record" and now conducts a printing office.

"Some time ago," she says, "I was suffering greatly from weakness. I was sick for three years and was up and down for over a year. My stomach was in a bad condition and didn't digest my food properly. I was very nervous and could not sleep well. When a child I had a severe case of spinal fever and had never felt cured of its effects and think this made my sickness worse."

"A neighbor told me to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills as they had helped her. I took her advice and I got relief from the first few boxes of the pills. I took them steadily until I was cured. They gave me strength and I have had no more trouble with my spine. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are certainly a great medicine for women's ills and I always recommend them."

"A booklet, 'Plain Talks to Women,' will be sent free to any woman suffering from weakness. It explains fully why Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are suited to the needs of weak women of all ages and gives many helpful suggestions in regard to the care of their health."

Women will find in Dr. Williams' Pink Pills the tonic exactly suited to their needs. Most of the ills from which they suffer are due to bloodlessness—a condition which the pills readily correct. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills contain no harmful or habit-forming drugs, and the sufferer who gives them a trial will avoid the danger so common in taking drugs which only deaden pain.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are for sale by all druggists, or will be sent, postpaid, on receipt of price, 50 cents per box; six boxes for $2.50, by the Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y.

CAME TO LIFE

AGED WOMAN HAD BEEN PLACED IN COFFIN

GLASGOW, Ky., Feb. 3.—Mrs. Jane Pitcock, 80 years old, caused a commotion in the mountain hamlet of Gamaliel in Monroe county, by coming to life in her coffin at the funeral in the small white church.

The lid of the coffin had been removed to give the mourners a last look at the supposed dead.

Then the aged woman opened her eyes and stretched forth her hands in silent supplication to those around her. Some ran out of the church in loud voices, while others fell on their knees beside the coffin and prayed. Several made their way through the streets shouting a resurrection had taken place. The whole countryside was aroused over the occurrence.

The woman remained conscious several hours, murmuring of wonderful visions, then she again sank into unconsciousness which this time actually ended in death.

U. S. SUPREME COURT

To Decide the Claim of a Chinese Boy

WASHINGTON, Feb. 3.—Out of the claim of Jen Yuen, a Chinese boy locked up in Boston, has arisen a ticklish question of personal rights that may work havoc with immigration regulations of the United States. Yuen asserts that it is his right to give bail pending action of the supreme court of the United States on the validity of his proposed exclusion from this country. He sought admission as a minor son of Chin Ying Don, whom he declared to be a Chinese merchant residing in Boston. The immigration officials rejected his application and the lower courts declined to release him on habeas corpus proceedings. The entire supreme court of the United States will be called on Feb. 20 to decide whether the boy shall be accorded bail, a preliminary application for which was denied by Justice Holmes.

The intricacy of Jen Yuen's case arises from the fact that so much business is before the court that it will not reach his case, just docketed, for probably three years and counsel for the boy declares it an injustice to keep him in prison for that period. An affidavit has been presented to the court to show that Jen Yuen cannot stand the strain. Because of confinement and unaccustomed food it is stated that he is now suffering great impairment of health, recently fainted and had a bad fall, so wounding himself in the face that three stitches were required to close the wound and is so nervously prostrated that a serious result is threatened and feared.

Appeal to the court was made on the theory that even a person convicted of crime, with sentence suspended by appeal, would be entitled to bail. Justice Holmes took the position that Jen Yuen was not compelled to endure imprisonment and that he could give up his attempt to enter the country and ask to take ship for other parts. To this argument Warren, Kyle, counsel for the boy, in a brief just presented to the court, has replied: "But if he is compelled to abandon his case before his rights shall have been determined because unable to endure imprisonment, to which we do not subject the worst convicts while their rights are being determined on appeal, whatever their color, whatever their nationality, whatever their crimes, then both father and son do complain—complain of a denial of justice, complain of a disregard of the rights of a Chinese boy."

LAWN TENNIS

CHAMPIONSHIPS MAY BE PLAYED AT NEWPORT

NEW YORK, Feb. 3.—Belief that the national lawn tennis championships would be played this year at Newport as usual was expressed today by many of the tennis experts here for the annual meeting of the United States National Lawn Tennis Association, to be held in the Waldorf-Astoria tonight. An agitation has been under way to take the championships away from Newport and transfer them to Philadelphia or some other city.

It was said, however, that the sentiment of the majority of the western players was against Newport and representatives from that section still expressed hope that the reported collapse of the plan to transfer the site of the annual national contest was more apparent than real and that the movement might be revived before the time for action was reached.

HORNE COAL CO.

GREELEY'S DAUGHTER

Sends Greetings to the Friends of Her Father

AMHERST, N. H., Feb. 3.—The 100th anniversary of the birth of Horace Greeley, which is being observed here today, has called to the mind of many of the oldest residents, whether or not any of the children born to Mr. Greeley in his union with Miss Mary Cheney on July 5, 1816, are yet in the land of the living.

Patent research and investigation has resulted in the information that only one child of Mr. and Mrs. Horace Greeley survives. She is Mrs. Gabrielle Greeley Clendenin, the wife of Rev. Dr. Frank M. Clendenin of West Chester avenue, New York city. Their country home, however, and where they spend most of their time, is in Chappaqua, Westchester county, New York.

It is upon a farm of about 75 acres and it was purchased by Mr. Greeley himself in 1852. It was one of the spots he loved and where he was wont to go for quiet and recreation.

The beautiful little village of Chappaqua, made famous by Greeley, nestles among the Westchester hills as picturesque as of old. Here may be seen the two rows of evergreen trees set out by Mr. Greeley and they have flourished and grown so tall that their branches touch and form a beautiful avenue of shade.

Here Mrs. Clendenin, with her husband and daughter, spends many happy hours surrounded with many memories of her famous father, and among them are letters and manuscripts of priceless value.

She has traveled much and it is said inherits the genius and ability of her father.

To his birthplace and his friends she sends greetings from his only living child, and this article from her father's pen written not long before his death: "My life has been busy and anxious but not joyless. I have been spared to see the end of giant wrongs which I once deemed invincible in this century, and to note the silent upspringing and growth of principal and inducements which I hail as destined to root out some of the most flagrant and pervasive evils that yet remain."

"I realize that each generation is destined to confront new and peculiar perils, yet I trust that progress is a general law of our being and that the ills and woes of the future shall be less crushing than those of the bloody and hateful past."

"So looking calmly, yet humbly, for that close of my mortal career which cannot be far distant, I reverently thank God for the blessings given me in the past and with an awe that does not exclude hope, I await the opening before my steps at the gates of the eternal world."

THE EXERCISES

WERE ATTENDED BY LARGE NUMBER OF GUESTS

AMHERST, N. H., Feb. 3.—Commemorative of the centenary of the birth of Horace Greeley, the widely known editor of half a century ago and founder of the New York Tribune, the said old town of Amherst opened wide its gates today to welcome a host of guests. A little way out from town on the road to the east still stands the rough, unpainted New England farmhouse in the midst of rocky fields, where 100 years ago Greeley first saw the light. For the first ten years of his life Amherst was the future journalist's home. The house in which he was born, and which remains to this day unchanged, was reputed to have been the den of a gang of counterfeiter as early as the days of the Revolution, and a secret cellar and hidden trap doors remain to show the methods of the scamps to cover their tracks.

While local authorities had the celebration in charge under the chairmanship of Rev. C. S. White, pastor of the Congregational church, newspaper editors and writers from all over the state were present in force as representatives of either the New Hampshire Press association or the New Hampshire Weekly Publishers association, and their principal members contributed largely to the program of celebration.

Exercises were held in the town hall where the address of the day upon the life of Horace Greeley was delivered by Albert E. Pillsbury, former attorney general of Massachusetts, a resident of Boston but a native of the adjoining town of Milford. To Mr. Pillsbury belongs the credit for having first appropriately marked the birthplace of Greeley with a tablet, a tardy memorial having been provided for within the past two days by vote of the state legislature.

Various reminders of Greeley in the form of letters and papers in the possession of the town were produced at the exercises, from which extracts of an interesting nature were read. At the conclusion of the exercises the same were placed on exhibition.

It was expected that Mrs. Frank Clendenin of Chappaqua, N. Y., a daughter of the editor, would be present and take part in the program, but she was unable to attend as she had an active part in a similar celebration at Chappaqua.

Editors from various parts of the country contributed to the exercises, however, and at the conclusion of the program many made pilgrimages to the birthplace of the famous journalist.

PROSECUTOR ATTEMPTS TO INDICT MEN RESPONSIBLE FOR RAILROAD EXPLOSION

JERSEY CITY, Feb. 3.—Prosecutor Garven of Hudson county has gone before the grand jury in Jersey City and asked for the indictment of men responsible for the explosion of the 35 tons of dynamite on pier 7, near the Communipaw station of the Jersey Central railroad, which caused the death of about thirty persons and injuries to at least 300 others and a property loss conservatively estimated at $1,000,000. Already it has been shown that the Katharine W., the steamer on which the dynamite was being loaded Dec. 24 last. The bureau of combustibles was notified on Dec. 27 that this immense quantity of explosives was on the pier and had been there for three days unguarded. The stuff was seized, transferred to Riker's island and eventually sold. It has just developed that the foundation of the statue of Liberty, on Bedloe's island, has several cracks in it, caused by the force of the blowup. Great anxiety as to the possibility of damage to the famous statue was felt at the time of the explosion.

The opening bout between Young Claus of Whitman and Frank Murphy of Brockton, scheduled for six rounds, ended in the second, Claus being the winner.

In the semifinal bout Jimmy Remond of this city defeated Young Leodona of Webster in the third round.

HOUCK SHADES WILLIAMS
LANCASTER, Pa., Feb. 3.—Barney Williams saved himself from punishment at Leo Houck's hands last night at the Lancaster A. C. by resorting to constant clinching tactics at critical periods, but he put up a good game fight and came out of it with credit.

Houck is not quite back in his old form yet, after several months' layoff because of his injured hand, but he was the aggressor throughout the bout and shaded Williams in every round.

Barney frequently had Houck on the ropes, but was unable to land any effective blows, while Leo repeatedly jolted Barney with left jabs on the jaw. In the last round Williams showed signs of distress.

Joseph McDonald and Benjamin J. Melony of this city have passed the examination for admission to the bar.

MORIARTY LOST

Harry Powers Given the Decision

LAWRENCE, Feb. 3.—Harry Powers of Brooklyn gained the decision over Jimmy Moriarty of Lowell at the Daily club here last evening after 12 rounds of very even boxing. The fact that Powers did most of the leading, although not landing very often, gained for him the award.

In the semifinal Young Donohue of Lawrence was outboxed by Jimmy Quinlan of Danvers by about 20 pounds, but received the decision in the fifth round, as Quinlan butted after being warned. Donohue was the cleverer of the two, and probably would have been awarded the decision anyway.

In the two preliminaries Kid Burke of Lawrence knocked out Young Marsh of Lawrence in one round. Young Senly of Lawrence dropped Tommy Hurst of Lawrence in four rounds.

QUILL GOT DECISION
BROCKTON, Feb. 3.—Boxing his first battle in his home city in years, Tommy Quill met one of the hardest men of his career in Hayward Briggs, a fellow-townsmen, in the opening meeting of the Shoe City A. C. at the Palace rink last night, Quill being given the decision by Referee Stanton Abbott because of his superior work in the last two rounds.

Up to that time it was about an even thing, the colored boy surprising his friends by his willingness to clash with his more experienced opponent.

The early rounds were rather tame. Quill apparently holding back for the finish and Briggs a bit leary of getting in too close. Briggs, however, frequently bored into Quill, but repeatedly held and protected himself. Quill, too, was willing to mix and often landed hard blows to the body.

The best milling of the entire bout of 12 rounds came at the end of the fifth session. Quill worked both hands over onto Briggs toward the finish, and had the colored man holding to save himself. Both disregarded the bell and hammered away at each other until separated by the referee and seconds.

The last round was the fastest of the 12, Quill landing at will in the early stages and Briggs doing good work at the finish. Both men were in good condition and as strong at the finish as at the start.

The decision was not altogether satisfactory to the 1200 spectators present.

ST. PETERSBURG, Feb. 3.—There was an unusual occurrence at yesterday's session of the trial for murder of Count O'Brien Delassey and the notorious poisoner, Dr. Panthenko, the latter being called upon to plead a second time. He pleaded guilty as before.

The count is accused of having employed the doctor to murder his brother-in-law, Count Vassili Bouturlin, the heir to estates of an estimated value of $3,500,000 in order that the property might be inherited by the Countess Delassey. Panthenko confessed his guilt, but set up the defense that he committed the crime while under the hypnotic influence of the count. As the trial progressed he wavered in matters of detail and his lawyers were quick to strengthen his original defense by declaring to the court that their client was still under the influence of the count to such an extent that he was little by little retracting the vital points of his confession.

DIAMOND NOTES

Manager John J. O'Brien of the Fall River team was one of the party of magnates, who looked Riverside park over a week ago when the meeting of the schedule committee was held in this city. He said right off the reel that it would be a cinch to drive the ball into the river. Manager Louis P. Pieper of the Lawrence team knew better and so made a little wager with the Fall River magnate about the number of Fall River players that would perform the stunt. Jewa is still insistent that it is easy, although he was not so certain, after he walked from the stand to the river fence.—Lawrence Eagle.

Manager Louis P. Pieper of the Lawrence team will start shortly to put down his squad. It does not follow that every player that he has signed up will be asked to report. In fact, many of them will be let out long before the reporting time and they will be given a chance to hook on with some other club.

It would cost the local club, a whole bunch of money to bring on all the men that have been signed up. A majority of the players signed are youngsters, who have done good work with school teams, Pieper believes in young blood, but he does not intend to get a surfeit of youngsters without having enough older and more experienced heads to give the club a proper balance.—Lawrence Eagle.

OPERA STOCK CO.

Will Begin Rehearsals Tomorrow

The new stock company of the Lowell Opera house will open with "The Charly Ball" on Saturday, February 11. Manager Ward is now securing the players and actors, and the public that the company will be first class in every respect.

Pieces which have not been seen here are, "Cameo Kirby" in which Nat C. Goodwin and Dustin Farnum have scored strongly; "Merely Mary Ann," the best light comedy offering Eleanor Robson ever appeared in, and "The Battle," Cleveland Moffatt's striking study of capital vs. labor, in which Lilton Lachayo was starred.

"Arizona," the strongest melodrama Augustus Thomas ever wrote, and in which Theodore Thomas appeared, "Gris," a snapping comedy by the late Clyde Fitch, "The Climbers," the lyrical study of social aspirers by the same dramatist, "Our New Minister," a comedy, "The Blue Bird," offering a surfeit of youngsters without having enough older and more experienced heads to give the club a proper balance.—Lawrence Eagle.

Richard Jolly, who was loaned by Lawrence to Brockton last year, wants to play with the Scranton club in the New York state league. Manager Monte Cross of that club has been communicated with and some kind of a trade may be made. Manager Louis P. Pieper said yesterday that Scranton was after Jolly and that the player

Police Say Aged Doctor Admits Having Killed 40 Persons

The count is accused of having employed the doctor to murder his brother-in-law, Count Vassili Bouturlin, the heir to estates of an estimated value of $3,500,000 in order that the property might be inherited by the Countess Delassey. Panthenko confessed his guilt, but set up the defense that he committed the crime while under the hypnotic influence of the count. As the trial progressed he wavered in matters of detail and his lawyers were quick to strengthen his original defense by declaring to the court that their client was still under the influence of the count to such an extent that he was little by little retracting the vital points of his confession.

Today the public prosecutor took cognizance of the situation and after referring to the proximity of the prisoners in the dock made a motion that the cardinal question of his guilt or innocence be proposed again to Panthenko. The court granted the motion and once more the aged physician replied that he was guilty. His examination was then continued. The whole empire is interested in the case because of the wholesale confession made by Panthenko. Every mysterious death of recent years is recalled and there are rumors that the poisoner may have been called to cause deaths in the royal family. He has admitted that he made a business of killing for hire, rivals in love, instant creditors, and in fact any undesirable person whose enemy was prepared to pay liberally for his sudden taking off.

THE ROBIN CASE

GRAND SHOWING

Made by Les Artisans Canadiens Français.

Jerome Refused to Plead For His Client

NEW YORK, Feb. 3.—William Travers Jerome, former district attorney of New York county, confronted in court yesterday Edward Swann, the judge whom he called Wednesday night "a half baked judge, who holds office by the grace of Charlie Murphy." He did not repeat his characterization, although the court repeatedly invited him to do so, with the promise that his language would be held privileged. He acknowledged, however, the substance of his criticism, refused to retract them and would not plead guilty or not guilty for his client, Joseph G. Robin, the indicted banker, when the court directed him to do so. It was the question of Robin's sanity which precipitated the controversy.

Judge Swann explained his attitude after court had adjourned. "If it can be shown to me," he said, "that Jerome knew a reporter was present and taking notes, with the intention of publishing his speech on Wednesday night before the Academy of Medicine, there won't be any fine, but I'll give you his cell number. It is not contempt of court to abuse a judge outside the court. This has been held by the higher courts. I have requested the newspaper in which the report of his attack was published, to inform me if Mr. Jerome knew a reporter was present to take down his speech when he made it. He has said that he did not."

The encounter between the former district attorney and Judge Swann was awaited with great interest by many lawyers as well as a large crowd of non-professional spectators, among them the 12 jurors whom Jerome in the same speech Wednesday night called a "rag tag jury" because they "counted counter to the opinion of alienists and declared Robin sane. Judge Swann complimented the jury on its verdict for its "horse sense," and it was this commendation which caused the wrath of Jerome, Robin's counsel.

Mr. Jerome told Judge Swann yesterday that he felt "deeply and bitterly" over the court's assurance that it was "aided sufficiently by the evidence" when he (Jerome) submitted "but five out of the 12 alienists he had in readiness. I held that the court was derelict in not calling all the witnesses possible when it was in his power to do so," he said.

On Jerome's refusal to repeat the remarks credited to him in a morning newspaper yesterday the court directed Robin to plead. Jerome refused, on the ground that his client was incompetent, whereupon the court directed the district attorney to enter a statutory plea of not guilty and the case was set for today.

Two of the local branches of Les Artisans Canadiens Français, branch St. Louis and branch St. Andre, held their regular semi-monthly meeting last night.

The annual report of the society whose headquarters are in Montreal, Que., was read at both meetings, and was received with joy by the members, for it shows a large increase both in membership and in reserve fund, notwithstanding the fact that a large number of members have passed away, and a big amount has been paid in death and sick benefits during the past year.

The report also shows the good a benefit mutual organization will do in helping the widow and the orphan, and in aiding a sick member.

From January 1st to December 31st, 1910, the society has paid in death benefits, $274,682.13, and in sick benefits, $125,288.28. The increase in the reserve fund for the past year has been $140,978.24. The organization which extends in Canada and the New England states has 440 branches, and counts 38,558 active members, although it recorded 304 deaths during the past 12 months.

Since its incorporation the society has paid $2,536,629.65 in death benefits, and $1,204,569.94 in sick benefits. Its reserve fund on December 31, 1910, was $1,457,740.54.

Col. Nate Meeker says: Col. Nathan Meeker, a veteran of the 17th N. Y. Volunteers, residing in Syracuse, New York, who wears a Gettysburg badge for brave fighting in an old soldier, and can say with pride that Blackburn's Casca Royal Pills beat anything I have ever tried for chronic constipation. I almost forget myself I feel so much better in every way. I take one pill every other night, and I feel lively and energetic all the time since taking them. I shall tell all of my friends about their great merit. I cannot make my letter strong enough in praise.

TO MAKE A DRY SHAMPOO

Dry shampoos are all the rage now amongst society ladies and the more prominent stage beauties. Here is a formula—much used in the east. It cleans, invigorates and stimulates the hair and scalp, while removing surplus oil, dust, dandruff, etc. Obtain of any well stocked druggist six ounces of pulverized orris root, also obtain two ounces of talco powder. Mix thoroughly and keep in a tight box or jar. Sprinkle a heaping tablespoon over and through the hair, distributing with the fingers. Do this at night. Next morning comb and brush thoroughly until all trace of powder is removed. The results are a wonderful glossy, clean, soft and fluffy head of hair.

Men use it daily. Women one to three times a week.

COL. NATE MEEKER SAYS:

Don't permit yourself or any member of your family or any friends to suffer long from the effects of constipation. Keep the constipation poisons out of your system, and feel well all the time. Write for a Free Trial Package to The Blackburn Products Co., Dayton, Ohio, or obtain a 10c or 25c package from your druggist.

DREW LARGE GATHERING TO GRACE CHURCH

TO SHAKESPEARE

British American Club to Honor His Name

A large gathering of representative British-American residents assembled in Odd Fellows temple, last evening to discuss the feasibility of formally observing Shakespeare's birthday. Mr. Fred G. Humphreys presided and Geo. Emsley acted as secretary. It was voted to hold a banquet on April 16, Shakespeare's birthday, to which prominent guests will be invited. A committee was appointed to make the necessary arrangements with the following members: Messrs. Flood, Booth, Southern, Williams, Hunt, Whitaker, Oliver, Bowen and Emsley. The matter of permanent organization was then discussed, which resulted in the birth of the Shakespeare Society club, and the following officers were duly elected: President, Walter Booth; vice president, Walter Booth; treasurer, Brook Southern; secretary, Alex. E. Williams.

Miss Etta Thompson, reading, Miss Grace Hull, short sketch on "Women's Rights," Mrs. Emma Perkins, representing 1911, and Mrs. Jessie Robinson, representing 1910; song, Miss Thompson, reading, Miss Hull. Following the miscellaneous entertainment, the sketch "A Paper Match" was presented by the following cast: "Aunt Sophrony," a maiden lady, Alice Hibbs; "Rose White," her niece, Miss Minnie Clifford; "Sam Hunt," in love with Rose, N. G. Brown, and "Hezekiah Jeaphat Brown," a soldier, John Hibbs.

Mrs. Charles H. Whig, Mrs. W. R. Key and Mrs. Charles Smith had charge of the supper, assisted by the following named: Mrs. George Shay, Mrs. Mary, Mrs. Charles Taylor, Mrs. Charles Spaulding, Mrs. George Raby, Mrs. Ralph Shaw, Mrs. Paul Shaw, Mrs. John W. Shoe Distinction

The style of present day footwear—the class that attaches to it—is traceable to the perfection of Goodyear Welt shoemaking machines.

These machines perform every function of manufacture—the cutting of the leather—the stitching—the lasting—the soling.

Their product is recognized as the very best—best in appearance—best in comfort—best in durability. Every conceivable style is produced for men, women and children.

GOODYEAR WELT

is the name of a process by which shoes are made and is not the name of a shoe. The public must remember this. A narrow strip of leather called a welt is first sewed to the leather upper and insole.

Five hundred of these strong close stitches are inserted in a minute. Shoddy leather or inferior leather cannot withstand this swift darting needle.

Only fine and flawless leather can be used on the machines that build Goodyear Welt shoes. Then another wonderful machine lock-stitches the heavy leather outer sole to this flat welt around the outside of the shoe.

But all seams are outside, not a single lock-stitch has penetrated to mar the inside smoothness of the shoe. Your comfort is assured. This explains why you don't have to "break in" Goodyear Welts. If properly fitted you can put them on and wear them out of the store.

To get Goodyear Welts write for our list of five hundred names of shoes made by this process. Get this list before you buy another pair of shoes. Take it to your regular shoe store. Find out what Goodyear Welts your dealer sells.

Your name and address brings the Goodyear Welt list. Two other interesting booklets will be sent you, one illustrating the Sixty Machines, the other "The Secret of the Shoe—An Industry Transformed." Write for them.

THREE DOLLARS PER YEAR. TWENTY-FIVE CENTS PER MONTH

The sworn daily average circulation of The Lowell Sun for the year 1910 was Sworn to by John H. Harrington, proprietor, Martin H. Reidy, business manager, and Alfred Plotté, pressman, of The Sun, before me, January 2, 1911. J. JOSEPH HENNESSY, Notary Public.

H. Teich moves from Boston, Lowell should offer it a refuge and a home. It is an institution that should not be allowed to go begging.

Ex-President Roosevelt in a letter to the Progressive Republican League declares himself an ultra radical. He has apparently set out to discount President Taft, William Jennings Bryan and President Gompers in radical pronouncements.

There is no class in Lowell that should be more ready to support the new charter than the labor organizations. When party designations will be abolished, the labor unions will still be able to exert their influence as such through their organizations, and in this they will have an advantage that other citizens will not possess.

TO STAMP OUT THE SHADY BABY FARMS

In enacting a law to place all maternity homes and baby farms under state supervision, the legislature of New Hampshire has taken the right stand for the protection of abandoned and dependent children. Through an investigation conducted last summer by Miss Mary Boyle O'Reilly a great many of these baby farms were shown to be harboring loose women, mothers who left their babies behind subject to cruel treatment of the worst kind. Sometimes abuses of this kind flourish under the guise of charity just as did the lying in homes and baby farms in New Hampshire, but as soon as their real character was exposed the people determined to stamp out the blot. The new law, we understand, calls for state supervision that should be a guarantee that right conditions must prevail in all licensed places and that no unlicensed places can exist.

THE COMMISSION CHARTER BOOMING

The commission form of city charter is rapidly spreading in the west, and unless it meets the expectations of the people there will be a great many disappointed by its adoption. No less than thirty-four cities in Missouri applied to the legislature last week asking for an enabling act that would permit them adopt this form of government without going through the formality of waiting for a special act for each particular city.

A number of states including Kansas, Iowa, Colorado, Illinois, Wisconsin, Michigan and Minnesota have already granted many cities the authority asked for by the Missouri cities. Hence it appears that the commission form of government such as is proposed for Lowell in the new charter is booming all over the country. While the charter may be very good, it might prove the reverse unless good men be selected under its provisions. This is true of all charters, and is something that depends entirely upon the voters.

ARE WE OVER-GOVERNED?

President Treadway of the state senate, in a talk before a club in Boston the other night, made the statement that the people of this state are much over-governed and over-officered. He points out that during the last decade the expenses of state departments have increased out of all proportion to the increase in business and population.

For example, he shows that the total expense of the state department in 1900 was $7,764,464, whereas last year the expense of the same department was $13,521,162. He shows also from statistics that the expense of the state commissions has increased in far greater proportion, some of them having increased their expenditures during the ten years over 120 per cent.

If what President Treadway says is true, and we have no reason to doubt his statements, it would appear that there is good reason for Governor Foss's determination to consolidate a number of these state boards rather than to allow them to go on increasing their expenditures from year to year, and forming unnecessary extensions of their official jurisdiction, all of which may justify the charge that we are over-governed.

THE PUBLIC HALL QUESTION

The need of a public hall is emphatically felt whenever there is a public agitation that requires the assembling of the masses for public discussion. The work of enlightening public opinion upon the city charter question is a case in point. Whenever a charter or anything that is new is brought forward somebody must take the initiative.

In this matter of the city charter a representative committee of sixty citizens was brought together to further the work of drafting a charter and putting it before the legislature in order to get a chance to submit it to the people for adoption or rejection. That committee has been obliged to go to society halls and ward rooms in order to tell the people about the new charter, and explain its provisions, whereas if a public hall were available a mass meeting might be called at which all citizens could assemble and hear the discussion. They could there ask questions and get correct information in regard to the provisions of the charter. But there is no public hall available, and there is slight prospect that such a luxury will be available for a considerable time to come.

The city council does not seem disposed to take hold and settle the matter in a business-like way. The final decision rests with that body, and in order to have the work started during the coming summer, some definite action should be taken without delay.

The Green school has been suggested as a suitable site. If no site can be found nearer to the business centre of the city, the Green school will serve as an extension of the municipal centre. The building might also be used as part of the new structure.

The public hall, however, should have not only one or two large assembly halls, but it should have a number of smaller halls in which society meetings could be held. It appears that the idea of connecting a system of public baths with the public hall has been abandoned, and we think very properly, as both could not be conveniently conducted in the same building.

SEEN AND HEARD

"Billy" Quinn, who was appointed to the police force Tuesday night, is a son of the late John J. Quinn, who for years was captain of Engine 4, at the High street house, and if he makes the record, as a policeman that his father did as a fireman, the police department will have a very valuable man. "Billy" is quite an athlete, possesses good judgment, and was first man on the civil list having a remarkably good rank.

THE LOVE WHICH ABIDES

My heart goes out in longing and dreaming of the days we two have spent together, in winding woodland ways.

The hours are all so sweet, dear, that I have spent with you. And they are ours for always, whatever else we do.

I see you half-reclining in mother's old armchair. In the home that is so perfect since you have entered there.

I see you sitting by me, and watching all I do. Or telling me so softly how much I mean to you.

I seem to feel your fingers touching mine when last we met. I see your lips, caressing and tear-dimmed eyes still wet.

I seem to feel your presence, no matter where you are. My heart is always with you, whether near or far.

And so it is I love you, from morning's early dawn. Till blessed night brings with it sweet dreams of dear days gone.

—Alice Gordon in Springfield Union.

PEOPLE OF NOTE

The first blind pupil to graduate from the public schools of New York is William Schenck, 15 years old, of Bayside, L. I., who has just received his diploma. He entered school in 1909 without the slightest knowledge of the Braille system, although three years before he had some experience with the point system used at the New York Institute for the Blind. It took him three weeks to master the new system and three weeks more to put him at the head of his class. In the recent final examination the questions were read aloud to him and he answered them on a typewriter with a percentage of 90.15, the highest mark of all the 450 pupils. Dr. William H. Maxwell, superintendent of the New York schools, told the board of education last week that the progress of the progress was the most remarkable he had ever noted in his experience as an educator.

A complimentary luncheon was given to Mrs. Ellen H. Richards, 73, by the Massachusetts Institute of Technology Women's association, in commemoration of the conferring of the honorary degree of doctor of science upon her by Smith college last October. There were about 100 members present. During the luncheon, a purse of $1000 was presented to Mrs. Richards, to be used for carrying on her research work at the institute.

A great collection of Washingtoniana is on exhibition at the old Roger Morris house of revolutionary days, better known as the Jumel mansion, near the 15th street station of the subway and the 15th street station of the Sixth avenue elevated road. Mr. Washington, finding the collection had grown too large for private control, lent it to the Washington Headquarters Museum, which, with the Jumel mansion, is controlled by the Washington Headquarters association, founded by the Laughters of

A Boston branch of the Wesleyan alumni committee was appointed at the annual reunion of the New England Alumni association at Young's hotel, Boston, to aid in raising a $1,000,000 endowment fund for Wesleyan university. Vernon B. Swift, 95, presided and there were 75 alumni present. The guests of honor included President William Arnold Shanklin of the university. Professor Caleb T. Winchester, Judge R. F. Raymond, E. A. Wilkie and William T. Rich, and F. W. Clarke, the two Wesleyan trustees from Boston. President Shanklin reported that the freshman class this year is the largest on record, comprising 123 men.

The Boston endowment committee consists of the following: Chairman William T. Rich, Judge Robert F. Raymond, 81, E. A. Wilkie, 78, F. E. Barker, Clarence L. Newton, 1902, Vernon B. Swift, 95, H. L. Harriman, 75, F. T. Kirt, 95, and George A. Rich, 95. Officers elected for the coming year: President, Franklin W. Kurt, 95, president of Chaucer hall school; vice president, Charles W. Holden, 78; secretary, G. C. Douglass, 1908; treasurer, C. L. Newton, 1902.

The Idaho Statesman tells a pretty story of love and marriage. Recently Joseph Hooker, a full-blooded Nez Perce Indian, who has been in the preparatory department of the Carlisle Indian school, married a Nez Perce girl of 19 and is taking her with him back to school, where they will study together. In true Indian fashion Mr. Hooker bought 40 acres of land in the northern portion of Idaho and gave it to the father of his wife as a compensation for the loss of the daughter's services, she being the only able-bodied woman in the tribe. The acquaintance began between Mr. Hooker and his wife years ago when they were children, and he has ever had the same intention to earn and save money to educate both. The wife has never attended school, but he has had three years in Haskell and Carlisle. While he was studying for 10 years and she waiting, he has been earning and saving money, and he now feels that he can make the great attempt. From two to three years is the time limit fixed. While the time is passing they are assured of the comforts of a home, so they have married.

John Burnett Collins, Yale university '81, died last March. He left a bequest of $50,000 to the university, the disposition of this fund to rest with a committee from his class. This committee has decided to invest the $50,000 in the Wright memorial dormitory, taking an entry in the dormitory as a memorial for Mr. Collins, the subscription being given under the condition that the total amount required for the dormitory should be raised in the near future. The Wright memorial committee has now secured subscriptions of over $157,000, leaving less than $2,000 to complete the total of $250,000. The committee is giving to donors of $5000 memorial suites, consisting of a study and two bedrooms. The following suites have already been given: Mrs. John Hay, in memory of her son, Adelbert Stone Hay, '83; Mrs. A. J. Belo, in memory of her son, Alfred J. Belo, '98; Miss Cuyler, in memory of her brother, Theodore Cuyler, '92; Henry Rogers Withthrop, '98, in memory of his father, Buchanan Withthrop, '62, for many years a member of the Yale corporation; Mrs. Edward N. Gibbs, in memory of her brother, Gen. Payson Barker, '66.

Miss Elsa D. James of Buffalo, N. Y., a graduate of Wellesley college, class of 1906, has given to the college a scholarship of $1000 in memory of the late Sophie Jewett, associate professor of English literature.

AT SESSION OF THE BROTHERHOOD WELFARE ASS'N.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Feb. 3.—A row was almost precipitated at yesterday's session of the Brotherhood Welfare association, made up of unemployed men, when President James J. How, in disposing of routine business, offered to read a letter to the members of the association from President Taft.

"I have here," said How, "a letter from Mr. Taft and also a circular stating that men are wanted for the United States army and navy. What is the pleasure of the convention?" The delegates at once shouted "Tear 'em up; throw 'em away. If Taft wants to talk to us let him come here."

He quieted the tumult by having the letter and circular aside. The letter from the president merely said that in regard to the convention would be beneficial to the unemployed, and that fasting results would obtain. It was written in response to a letter requesting him to come to Milwaukee to address the meeting.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR SOCIETY BOSTON, Feb. 3.—Thirty years of life, which has seen the Young People's Society of Christian Endeavor grow from the 45 members with which it started in Portland, Me., to more than 2,000,000 members, speaking 60 or more languages, was commemorated last night in Tremont Temple before a throng of young people, which completely filled the edifice. Rev. Francis Z. Clark, D. D., founder of the society and its president, reviewed its growth. Samuel E. Capen, L. L. D., president, and Gov. Eugene N. Foss opened the exercises.

MAYOR GAYNOR

Urges Indictment of

Lawyer Epstein

NEW YORK, Feb. 3.—Mayor Gaynor wrote a letter last night to Archibald Watson, corporation counsel, in which he demands that evidence looking to the indictment of Alfred Epstein, a lawyer, for alleged forgery, be laid before the district attorney and that the latter be "put before the bar association for the disbarment of Epstein."

The mayor charges that Epstein brought a taxpayer's action against him (the mayor) in the name of Julia Smith, who, he says, is a maniac, apparently without real estate, and therefore not qualified to bring a taxpayer's suit, either to restrain the payment of the famous Cobalan warrant or in any other matter. That Epstein afterward brought another taxpayer's suit, "in the name of another alleged taxpayer," to stop the payment of the Cobalan's salary, that Epstein presented three notes to the Carnegie Trust company, the endorsements on which, he subsequently acknowledged to Leslie M. Shaw, former secretary of the United States treasury and afterward president of the Carnegie Trust company, were either forged by him or with his knowledge, and finally, that "I have also evidence that a sensational and untrustworthy newspaper paid Epstein to bring these sham suits."

The mayor was originally accused of authorizing on the first day of his administration the payment to Daniel J. Cobalan of Tammany hall of a warrant for $15,000 drawn to Cobalan's order by the retiring administration.

UNIONIST PRESS

GIVES ITS ATTENTION TO RECIPROCITY QUESTION

LONDON, Feb. 2.—The Unionist press has completely abandoned the discussion of the veto bill and the house of lords, and taken up the reciprocity agreement as the most live issue of the hour. The Unionist press also asserts that tariff reform and imperial preference are more urgent than ever.

Interviews on the question are sought with all the prominent men. The Canadian financier, W. M. Aitken, who was elected member of the house of commons for Ashton-under-Lyme, expresses the view that the United States has been so wasteful of its national resources that it is compelled to look to Canada's untapped resources to prevent impending disaster.

The Standard in an editorial says: "Canada is mistress of the situation, agreement or no agreement—yet the Canadian ministers have allowed themselves to be hypnotized by the brilliance of the American offer, and have fallen into the trap Taft so carefully laid."

The Daily Telegraph says that there is still time for the mother country to set to work to bring Canada into a wide scheme of imperial preference. "The choice," says the Telegraph, "is between keeping and losing Canada, between saving the empire and allowing it to drift dissolution. The possibilities of imperial preference in connection with the United States are vaster than even the whole question, if we are wise, may be placed by future Unionist negotiation with Washington and Ottawa upon a bigger and more practical basis. To the double purpose of imperial union and Anglo-American friendship the present reciprocity project will be no obstacle, but a strong help."

SONS OF BROWN

BOOM WALKER FOR THE GOVERNORSHIP

BOSTON, Feb. 3.—Proclaiming in song and chorus their admiration and respect, Joseph Walker of the class of 1837 as the next governor of Massachusetts, the Sons of Brown, university of Boston and vicinity, entertained their 38th annual banquet at the Hotel Somerset last night. The dean of the university also received an enthusiastic reception, Alexander Melikoff being present in the unavoidable absence of President Faunce.

The address of the evening was delivered by Gov. Robert F. Bass of New Hampshire, the greater part of whose address was devoted to a review of the power the Boston & Maine railroad formerly exerted in New Hampshire politics, the governor also describing the fight which had been made to redeem the state from the power of the bosses.

Reminiscences of college life were given by James Burrill Angel L. L. D., '48, president emeritus of the University of Michigan; Edward Judson, D. D., '65 of New York city and Herman Carey Bumpus, Ph. D., of New York city.

Officers for the next year were elected as follows: President, Richard Olney, '56; vice presidents, Frederick D. Ely, '39; John Tietlow, '64; A. P. Gifford, '74; Sam. Walter Foss, '32 and Joseph Walker, '37; secretary, Rufus E. Corlew, '98; treasurer, Fred W. Woodcock.

THE SUGAR CO.

TO INVESTIGATE ACTS OF LATE HENRY O. HAVEMEYER

NEW YORK, Feb. 3.—Not only is the American Sugar Refining company indirectly fighting young Horace Havemeyer for the $10,000,000 common stock issue of the National Sugar Refining company, a subsidiary, but it is going to scrutinize the official activities of his father, the late Henry O. Havemeyer, generally recognized as the trust's creator. James M. Beck, counsel for the American Sugar Refining company issued a statement last night in part as follows:

"I may add for the information of the stockholders of the American Sugar Refining company and the public generally that the present management of that company intends to consider with great care the question as to whether the late Mr. Havemeyer did not, as its president, by acts of omission and commission, inflict losses upon the stockholders, which they should not in equity bear. It intends to make an earnest effort to fix the responsibility for past losses where it belongs."

Rubber Goods and Storehouse in Malden Destroyed

MALDEN, Feb. 3.—Upwards of $200,000 worth of rubber goods in the storehouse of the Converse Independent Rubber company, went up in flames last night when the storehouse and its contents were entirely destroyed by fire. The blaze generated unusual heat, which seriously warped the nearby tracks of the western division of the Boston & Maine railroad, forcing up traffic there for hours, and burning out telephone, telegraph and electric light wires for some distance around.

It was the shrill whistling of the sirens on passing locomotives that drew the attention of Engineer William O'Connell to the blaze, which then was burning in the northeast corner of the second floor. The storehouse, a two-story wooden structure of about 13,000 square feet, is located at the foot of Pearl street, connected with the company's factory by a wooden runway. When the apparatus arrived the hydrant supply of water was sufficient to allow the use of only four lines of hose, and the firemen were forced to allow the flames to run across over the storehouse, in order to save the more valuable manufactured goods in the factory.

For a time the asbestos covering of the storehouse concealed the full extent of the blaze, but soon the flames penetrated this and when the sprinklers in the building stopped, the fire was uncontrolled. The stopping of the sprinklers however, gave a new supply to the hydrant lines and the fire was eventually successful. The cause of the blaze is unknown.

Marquis M. Converse late tonight estimated his loss at over $200,000. Mr. Converse said the manufactured goods and goods in the building were valued at about $200,000 and the building itself cost the concern $17,000 within a year. The entire damage is covered by insurance.

A BIG SHORTAGE

Found in Treasurer St. John's Accounts

NEW YORK, Feb. 3.—The body of Edward St. John, assistant treasurer of the Westinghouse Electric & Manufacturing company of New York, Pittsburgh and other cities, was found in the surf off Connetquot, N. Y., yesterday. It was fully dressed and no other theory is advanced than that he committed suicide by drowning some time during the past 24 hours, because of a shortage in his accounts due to speculation in Wall street with the company's funds. The amount is estimated to be not greater than $50,000.

"The shortage was not discovered until after the report of his suicide yesterday," said Vice President Charles A. Terry of the Westinghouse company. "St. John had been in the employ of the Westinghouse company more than ten years and the latter part of that time had been assistant treasurer here. He had charge of collections and disbursements and his misappropriation of negotiable securities, which he handled, is a surprise to all his associates, who regarded him as a most trustworthy man. We believe this must have been his only weakness and his first fall. We have not determined definitely the extent of his shortage, but I do not believe it is over $50,000. He was bonded to the extent of only $15,000, for the amounts he handled were not generally large."

Mr. St. John was 60 years of age and married.

THE UNEMPLOYED

BILL TO INSURE THEM MAY BE PASSED

LONDON, Feb. 3.—The government hopes at the coming session of parliament to pass the bill for compulsory insurance against unemployment. This will be put into effect next January and it will be experimental, to be applied to 2,500,000 skilled and unskilled workers in the building, shipbuilding and engineering trades and administered through the labor exchanges. The men are to contribute approximately six pence weekly, the employers and the state contributing the same amount. Unemployed persons will receive about 10 shillings a week.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 3.—About 133 republican members of the house attended the caucus last night to decide upon the party policy as to congressional reapportionment on the basis of the latest census. The first bill considered was that reported by Mr. Crumpacker of Indiana, chairman of the house committee on census, fixing the house membership after March 3, 1913, at 433, on a ratio of population of each representative of 211,877, as against 191,182 as at present.

This action, with the defeat of a plan to offset the negro disfranchisement in the south, urged by Messrs. Bennett and Olcott of New York, and opposed by Mr. Haines of West Virginia and others, occurred during a lively three hours' session of the caucus.

Several proposals were pending, including Mr. Campbell's leaving the house as it stands today; or that of Mr. Elkins of Missouri, favoring 492 members; that of Mr. Stafford of Wisconsin, for 387 members, representing views said to be held by Speaker Cannon and some other house leaders from the larger states; and that of Mr. Crumpacker for 433 members, urged at the outset by its author. The Campbell plan was first taken up and finally prevailed. The carrying out of the scheme was left to the census committee which will prepare the way for action at this session of congress.

The caucus became rather stormy when the Bennett anti-disfranchisement plan was proposed. It directed preparation of a bill to carry out section 2 of the 14th amendment to the federal constitution so as to cut down the representation of any state in proportion as the state were disfranchised by such a state. It was defeated after considerable speech making, by a vote of 72 to 48.

THE HIGH SCHOOL

SOON TO PRESENT THE MIKADO

IN FINE STYLE

Great preparations are being made at the High School for the presentation of "The Mikado," of the Town of Titipu, the Japanese comic opera, in two acts, by Gilbert and Sullivan. Everybody is more or less familiar with "The Mikado," and everybody loves it. It is full of charming situations and delightful phrases and the eye or ear of the most sensitive is never offended.

The play will be presented by pupils and graduates of the High School on Friday evening, Feb. 17, and Saturday afternoon and evening, Feb. 18. A stage has been built to accommodate a chorus of 75 and about all of the principal parts will be taken by present pupils of the school, assisted by two or three recent graduates who are good singers.

Principal Cyrus W. Jones is very much interested in the coming event, as is also Edward T. Goward of the school board. Mr. Goward thinks there is little in the line of comic opera that is quite as good as "The Mikado." This may be accounted for, perhaps, by the fact that he was once a participant in the presentation of it.

The school board, Principal Jones and everybody else interested in or connected with the affair, are extremely thankful to the Merrimack Manufacturing company for its splendid gift. The company has given the goods for the costumes, over 60 different kinds, new and very beautiful. The stage scenery will be exceptionally good and great interest is being manifested on all sides. The play will be given under the direction of Mr. F. H. O. Blunt and Miss Leah A. DeMerritt. The orchestra will be under the direction of Emil C. Lavigne with Mr. George R. Smith as pianist.

Horatius B. Leggat will assume the role of "Mikado," and the part of "Nanki-Poo," the Mikado's son, will be taken by Charles H. Hester. Other parts will be cared for as follows: "Ko-Ko," lord high executioner of Titipu, Edward F. Slattery; "Pooch-Bah," lord high everything, else, Ercell A. Teeson; "Fish-Tush," a noble lord, Daniel Hanson; "Yum-Yum," "Pet-Du-Sing," and "Three Sisters," wards of "Ko-Ko," E. Irene Foster; "Kishish," an elderly lady in love with "Nanki-Poo," Mary A. Mack. There will be a large chorus of school girls, nobles, guards and coolies.

The affair is one of the real attractions of the winter season, and coming at a time when attractions are different in character are holding the boards. It is expected that all three performances will be well attended.

U. S. CHAMPION

LOOKS LIKE WINNER OF CHESS TOURNAMENT

NEW YORK, Feb. 3.—Frank J. Marshall, the United States champion who has led in the national chess tournament practically from the start, will either win the tournament in the final round today or tie for leadership with the Cuban champion, Jose R. Capablanca. The Cuban is assured of second place if he beats John today and of a tie with Marshall if the national champion loses to Kroyenborg. Marshall has drawn three games, but has not one of the 11 played.

Oscar Chabok of Chicago, who has kept close to Marshall, ended his play in the tournament today with a draw with A. B. Hodges. This leaves him with hope of only second place at best, and of retirement to third should Capablanca win today.

Marshall, playing Tenenwurzel, took a place on the ninth move of a Queen's gambit declined and won after 24 moves in the sensational yesterday. Capablanca, pitted against G. G. Baird, played his favorite variation of the Ruy Lopez and outplayed his opponent, ending in 50 moves.

CHARGES MADE

AGAINST THE RUSSIAN MINISTER OF MARINE

ST. PETERSBURG, Feb. 3.—The duma committee on national defense has drawn up a formidable indictment charging the Russian minister with diverting the credits voted in 1907 for torpedo boats and submarines for the Black sea and with disregarding the naval program approved by the emperor, and neglect of Russia's defensive needs.

The report dwells on Turkey's naval developments in the Black sea, and raises a warning of possible disaster, the consequences of which cannot be foreseen.

LOWELL OPERA HOUSE

"At the Old Cross Roads" was the attraction at the Opera House last night and, despite the storm, it was largely attended. This melodrama by Arthur C. Alston has been presented here for several years and has already attained popularity. The drama has a theme of southern romance dealing as it does with the love affairs of Annabel Thornton and Tom Martin. The fact that the young woman has negro blood in her veins comes to light at a critical moment when the marriage had been planned. The girl herself was ignorant of this fact in her hereditary and refused to go on with the marriage but her fiancé would not let this disclosure upset his plans. The girl's mother, hitherto unknown, plots to kill the young man and succeeds at "The Old Cross Roads."

The exciting situations are numerous and the color of the play colors in the cloud of mystery in which the thread of the plot was involved.

The part of Patience, Annabel's mother, was ably assumed by Miss Mary Downs, who won much applause by her acting.

Those who assumed the other roles and assisted in the success of the performance were Florence Ockerman and Leila Bennett, James J. Edwards, T. F. Mulligan, Sam B. Wilson, W. R. Healey, Leon Williams, Kraft, Walton and Madeline Clark.

"The Old Cross Roads" will be repeated today and tomorrow and will doubtless attract large audiences.

HATHAWAY THEATRE

Donald Merk, who plays the part of "Tom Brown" in "Brown of Harvard," never had such unlimited opportunities as he has in this comedy of college life. This statement is made with a full knowledge that Mr. Merk is the leading comedian with the John Craig Stock company, at the Castle Square theatre, Boston, for three years, and where all his parts were arranged by Mr. Craig to suit his somewhat peculiar methods. The Donald Merk Stock company, with Severin DeBeyn, makes its initial bow to Lowell theatregoers, in this play. Rida Johnson Young is the author, as she is also of "Glorious Betsy," in which Mary Manning starred last season, and "Naughty Marietta," which is one of the few New York successes of the present season. Supporting Mr. Merk and Mr. DeBeyn are Inez Buck, Gertrude Franklin Lynch, Ada Allen, Anna Wilbur, Dorris Dutton, James Dalton, Wm. Thompson, Jack Keller, Dan McCabe, Harry Taylor and F. W. Laffey. At this popular little playhouse Saturday night and week of Feb. 6.

ACADEMY OF MUSIC

A new program was presented yesterday at the Academy and one that is sure to please. McRae and Levering have a nifty cycle act and perform some difficult stunts on wheels of many different shapes and sizes. Another act that pleases is Fagan, Merrick and Thurston. Lewis Morton & Co. in "The King's Head" present one of the best sketches that has been seen here in a long time.

The Falcons, an organization composed of young men of Centralville, held a social and dancing party in Associate hall last night. There was a large attendance and the evening was spent in an enjoyable manner. Music for dancing was furnished by Kittredge's orchestra.

MERRIMACK SQUARE THEATRE

An unusual animal act is Spessady's World Circus Bears, appearing at the Merrimack Square Theatre this week. The offering is full of sensational features, the big bears doing all manner of amazing stunts, and stunts amusing as well. The great Dane dog, with the circus, is one of its most talented performers also.

Among the other features on the bill is the Buckley-Martin Co., presenting the amusing sketch "The Busy Man." It is one long laugh from curtain to curtain. Then there are Hathaway and Sigel, singers and dancers; the "Golden Gate Trio," first class singers who can do eccentric dancing, a dancer, then most; and Miss Anna McLennan, interpreter of the latest illustrated songs.

The pictures are numerous, varied and the best to be obtained.

COLONIAL THEATRE

An unusually strong bill is being presented for the last half of this week at the Colonial theatre. Bob and Bertha have a nifty cycle act and perform some difficult stunts on wheels of many different shapes and sizes. Another act that pleases is Fagan, Merrick and Thurston. Bishop Valentine's Annual Festival

Cupid the Smasher

"Another one of these armor plated hearts for heiresses. Watch me bust it."

HE DID HIS BEST.

"Tommy," asked the father, "have you done anything today to make your grandma happy?"
"Yes. I didn't go to see her."

THIS IS THE DAY.

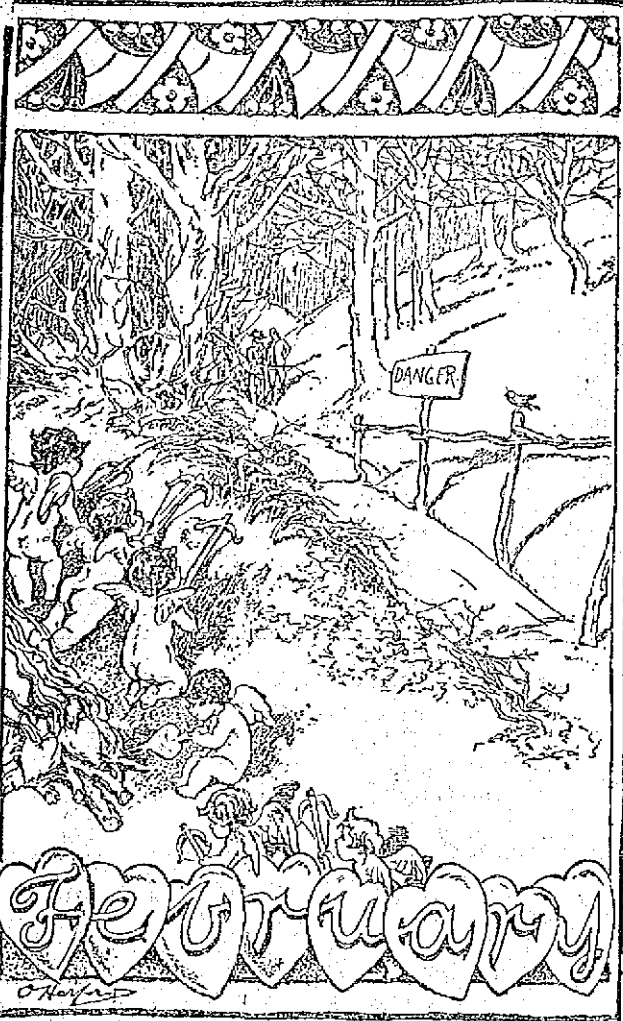

Ye lads and ye lassies,
Oh, this is your hour,
When over hearts loving
Dan Cupid hath power,
So come, ye young lovers,
And yield to his sway,
For this his time festal,
St. Valentine's day.

HEAR ALSO WHAT CHARLES LAMB SAYETH.

Hail to thy returning festival, old Bishop Valentine! Great is thy name in the rubric, thou venerable arch flamen of Hymen. Immortal go-between, who and what manner of person art thou? Art thou but a name, typifying the restless principle which impels poor humanity to seek perfection in union? Mysterious personage, like unto thee, assuredly, there is no other mitred father in the calendar, not Jerome, nor Ambrose, nor Cyril. Thou comest attended with ten thousands of little loves, and the air is brushed with the hiss of rustling wings. Singing cupids are thy choristers and thy precentors, and instead of the crozier thy mystical arrow is borne before thee.

THE SMALL BOY'S VALENTINE.
Each year you find it without fail.
He goes to no expense
To send it to you through the mail;
He chalks it on your fence.

A DART FROM RENO.

Here's a valentine, my dear,
All the way from Reno dear,
From your happy little wife,
When you get it take a knife,
Cut the twined hearts in two—
One for me and one for you,
One for you and one for me
Are the terms of the decree.

THE LITTLE GOD'S CAPTURE.

ONE FOR BABY.

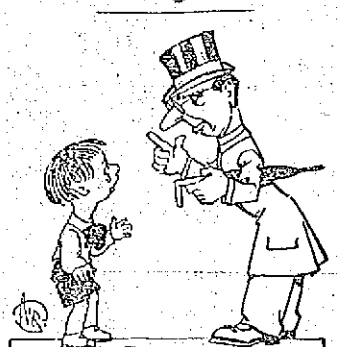

"The rose is red, the violet's blue,
Pinks are pretty, and so are you."

The rose is red, my rosy dear,
But that you hardly yet can know,
Since you have only been with us
Four of the times when roses blow.

The violet's blue, my blue eyed love;
Yet that, perhaps, you hardly know,
Since you have only passed four times
The violets in their hoods of blue.

The pinks are pretty, baby queen,
And so are you, but that also,
From being here so short a time,
Perhaps you've hardly learned to know.

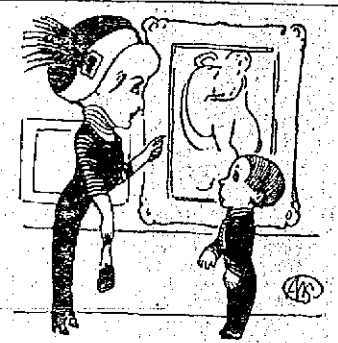

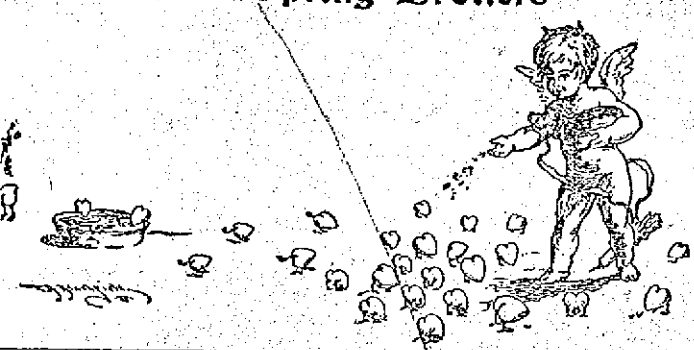

WHAT WAS THAT?

HE HAD A CHANCE.

"I hope you will be a better boy," said the dominie to the street urchin who had been caught in a wrong act.

HYMEN'S AGENT.

Valentine was the high priest of a Greek temple that stood near the imperial palaces in Rome. He had ever been famous and popular as an agent of Hymen, and in the hour of need he was secretly sought out by hundreds and implored to continue in his good offices. Nor did he refuse. So, quietly and unostentatiously, the wedding went on until at last Claudius heard of it. Great was his wrath. Courtiers warned him that the priest was too powerful to tamper with and reminded him of good works in the past, but nothing could move the emperor from an avowed purpose of punishing Valentine for his violation of the edict. So the unfortunate man was thrown into a cell and soon languished and died.
Upon his birthday, the story tellers say, was founded the present holiday and the custom of transacting the very important affairs of the god of love on this occasion. The story is not vouched for, but it is a satisfaction to know that it may have occurred that way.

WHAT THE HEART SIGNIFIES.

The heart upon the valentine might stand for love or faith or health.
But wise men only see in it An ostentatious boast of wealth.

ONCE HEARTS WERE DEEMED OF LITTLE WORTH.

But now we find, to our amazement, That butchers sell them for the sum That steaks cost in the olden days.

ALL READY.

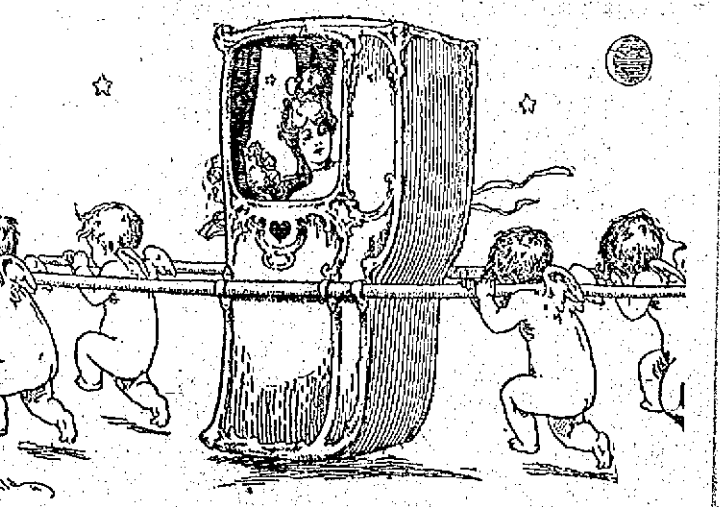

"Doctor says I need exercise and must take to walking more."
"When do you start?"
"I bought an automobile this morning."

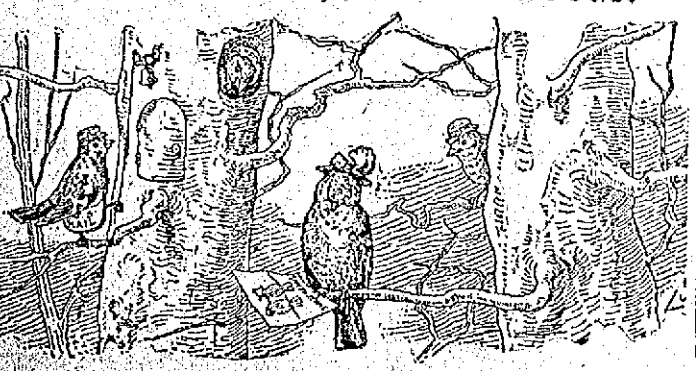

IN SUSPENSE.

Biggle—Have you any distant relatives?
Wiggle—No. They are all near enough to visit me at a moment's notice.

CUT OF $144,877.55

Has Been Made by the Committee on Appropriations

It is Still Necessary to Make a Reduction of $19,375—Street Department Asked for $210,000 and Was Given $154,000

The appropriations committee went to city hall with its knife last night and heaved huge sinks from department estimates. The committee, however, will have to do some more trimming as the estimates are still $19,375.00 beyond the amount available.

The chips flew when the committee struck the street department's camp. The committee gave this department the hook as well as the knife and trimmed it to the tune of $65,878.50. It was the fifth meeting of the committee and the total cut up to date is $144,877.55. The committee will meet again Monday night.

The Incidental Fund
The incidental fund was the first proposition considered by the committee last night and the question came up of the advisability of the mayor having control of the fund. Councilman Chapman was of the opinion that a certain sum should be transferred from the incidental fund to the mayor's account for sundries, and that the incidental fund be made entirely the property of the city council, to be used by that body at its own discretion. Action in the matter was deferred.

The law department was allowed the same appropriation allowed at the last meeting, $5,024.00. The city weigher's estimate of $810 was not sliced.

The Park Department
The park department felt the knife quite keenly. The labor estimate of $15,000 was cut to $10,000, the amount spent last year, and the "other expenses" were cut from $6,429.10 to $4,000. The committee allowed $800 for the care of trees; playgrounds and supervision, $1800; repairing school grounds, $500.

Lacy Larson park proved a bone of contention. Mr. Larson said he would like to see the park finished this year, but there were certain items mentioned in the summary that he thought were unnecessary. The amount asked for was $1330 and on motion of Mr. Flanagan that amount was reduced to $1000.

The Mayor's Fund
The committee went back again to the incidental fund and the ordinance relative to it was read, and the committee went over the fund to see what items might be transferred to the mayor's account.

The mayor's sundries account, after a deal of juggling with amounts and the incidental fund was made to read $700, leaving $1100 for incidentals.

Other transfers were made from "incidentals" including the care of the High Street church clock to the fire department, a matter of $25.

The Fire Department
To the auditor's fund from "incidentals," $400 was added for auditing books; to the treasurer, $90, for rent of safe deposit boxes.

The committee voted on to the fire department and for salaries and wages, the amount asked for, $140,000 was allowed, and $26,000 for "other expenses," including High Street clock. The department was allowed $168,000, which is $9000 more than was allowed by last year's committee.

For the Police
The park commission asked for $10,000 for the 10th department and the committee voted to allow $8000.

The committee drove on to the police department and started in on the patrolmen. The amount asked for the pay of patrolmen was $109,825.50. It was finally decided to dump all salaries including board of police, commissioned officers, patrolmen, employees, pensioners and special duty men, the whole amounting to $155,924.23. That was the amount asked for and $160,000 was allowed. For other expenses $6080 was asked and $5000 was allowed.

Weights and Measures
The sealor of weights and measures gets $2430, which provides for raising the salary of the deputy sealor to $15 a week, but the "other expenses," estimated at $1000, were cut to $450. The net cut on these estimates was $550.

School Department
Schools asked for $388,000, but the committee's knife cut this to $380,000. The lighting department had previously been allowed $98,000, but this was raised to $101,035.25.

Street Department
Street department estimates of $202,889.26, which included salaries, wages and "other expenses," and this sum was sliced to $154,000, $114,000 of this for salaries and wages, $35,000 for "other expenses" and $5000 for new sidewalks. This was a single cut of nearly $50,000.

The sewers estimate was also generally sliced, the salaries and wages coming down $2884 to $12,000 and "other expenses" being cut to $3000, a drop of $4698.

Street watering estimates were sliced $4096.75 in total.

Supply Department
The supply department was allowed $5718 for salaries, slight increase, $700 for "other expenses," and $300 for advertising. This was a cut of $501 in total.

The city messenger's department was reverted to and the matter of some deserved raises in salaries was considered, the committee having previously voted not to allow the cash necessary. An increase of $234 was allowed this appropriation.

Adjourned.

SERIOUS CRISIS

REACHED IN WORK OF RAISING THE MAINE

HAVANA, Feb. 3.—A serious crisis has been reached in the work of raising the Maine. Of the original appropriation there now remains barely sufficient to continue the work for four days. Already expert engineers and skilled workmen have been discharged and unless the additional appropriation is made immediately available the elaborate organization will be destroyed, involving great financial sacrifice and indefinite delay in the work.

For Coughs and Colds

Sound lungs are more than half the battle in the building up of a healthy body.

That's why parents should take great care to see that their children's lungs are properly developed; that they are kept sound in tissue; with an expansive power in proportion to the weight and height of the body.

This can best be done by—

- 1st. Vigorous physical exercises, with stress laid on the setting-up exercises which develop the upper part of the body.
- 2nd. The right kind of food and plenty of it.
- 3rd. Fresh air.
- 4th. The prevention of colds, and their prompt cure if they are contracted. This can be accomplished by the regular use of Sirolin.

THERE was a bottle of Sirolin on the teacher's desk in the primary school, and when the visitor had his attention attracted by it, the teacher said:

"I keep it there for daily use. You know how children come to school continually with colds and coughs. These coughs point to the fact that the outcome may be consumption, and although I urge on parents to have the little ones provided with Sirolin at home, I know that domestic circumstances often forbid, and I make it a practice to administer it here in the school-room. It may save them from contracting consumption."

Sirolin contains no morphine, codeine, habit-forming or constipating drug.

THE SIROLIN COMPANY, 365 & 367 Canal Street, New York

Sirolin is something more than a remedy for coughs and colds. It is a builder of healthy tissues. Its action upon the lungs and bronchial passages is reconstructive and invigorating. Upon the whole system it acts as a tonic.

Sirolin contains no narcotic, or other harmful drugs. Children like it, for it has a pleasant, slightly sweet, syrupy taste.

Sirolin is the world's best remedy for coughs, colds, grippe, influenza, whooping-cough and all affections of the pulmonary organs.

MAIL SUBSIDY BILL GOOD ADVICE

To Men who Drink In-

VICE PRESIDENT SHERMAN

Saved From Defeat by Vice-Pres.
Sherman's Vote

WASHINGTON, Feb. 3.—For the first time in the history of the government yesterday the vice president of the United States exercised his constitutional prerogative of casting a vote to break up a tie after three successive roll calls in the senate.

By his first vote he saved from defeat the ocean mail, or ship subsidy bill, and by the third he forced an adjournment of the senate on a vote having direct bearing on the resolution looking to the election of senators by direct vote of the people.

The vote on the passage of the subsidy bill, both in committee of the whole and in the senate proper, stood 40 yeas, and 39 nays, and on adjournment 37 yeas to 37 nays. On all three occasions the vice president voted in the affirmative.

Another notable occurrence concerning the vote on the subsidy bill was the absence of the new democratic senator from West Virginia, Clarence W. Watson. He had taken his seat early in the day as the successor to Senator Elkins, but was in the senate chamber only a few minutes during the session, and voted on only one roll call.

New Senator Disappears
This vote was cast on an amendment offered by Mr. Shively of Indiana, regulating the aggregate expenditures which may be made under the terms of the bill. On this provision the new West Virginia senator cast his vote in the affirmative, thus indicating his opposition to the measure.

By his first vote he disappeared, and when the next ballot was taken Mr. Scott, his republican colleague, announced Mr. Watson's absence, saying that he was away "on important business."

The result on this roll call was not as close as to render material the presence or absence of any senator and no notice was taken of the fact that Mr. Watson was not in attendance.

Only a few senators gave heed to Mr. Scott's announcement, and they laughed good-naturedly over it. Their enjoyment, if significant, passed without explanation, and by most senators was attributed to the failure of a new senator to embrace his first opportunity to make a record.

After the final result became known the opponents of the bill, including all of the democrats, realized that Mr. Watson's absence prevented the defeat of the bill. Every democrat present during the roll call voted against the measure.

EMPLOYERS WANT SOBER MEN

Competition is too keen and life is too strenuous for an employer to keep on his pay roll men who are not in mental or physical condition to perform the duties of their position. Business is closing its doors to "drinking" men. If you are a drinking man, it may be your time next. Better stop drinking at once. Orin, the standard remedy for the liquor habit, will help you. By the aid of Orin thousands of men have been restored to lives of sobriety and industry, hence they have become worth more to their employers, and best of all they've made their loved ones happier.

Orin is a simple home treatment. No loss of time from work while you are taking it. Start today. You will be surprised at the results. Write at once to Orin, who will send you a trial bottle free. If you are a drinking man, you will find it a relief to get a benefit from its use. We will give you a month's supply free. Write to Orin, the well-known druggist of this city, who has been selling Orin a number of years and they highly recommend it. Read what they say:

"Orin has evidently come to stay, as the sales and medicinal results from its use are entirely satisfactory to us. We have heard much for and nothing against Orin from people who have used it. The fact that you guarantee Orin to cure 'drunkenness' or refund the money if it fails, shows your own confidence in your preparation and accords perfectly with our business principles. We are pleased to give Orin our hearty endorsement."

ORIN is prepared in two forms. No. 1, secret treatment, a powder, absolutely tasteless and odorless, given secretly in food or drink. ORIN No. 2, in pill form, is for those who desire to take voluntary treatment. ORIN costs only $1.00 a box. Write for Free Orin Booklet (mailed in plain sealed envelope) to ORIN CO., 204 Orin Building, Washington, D. C. ORIN is recommended and is for sale in this city by Riker-Jaynes Drug Co., 119-123 Merrimack st.

MAKE YOUR OWN HAIR TONIC

A SPECIALIST'S ADVICE

In a recent issue the New York Herald published a special article on the care of the hair, in which was given the formula for a home-made hair tonic. This remarkable hair-growing properties, as well as for stopping falling hair, revitalizing the hair roots, destroying the dandruff germ and restoring gray hair to its natural color. This article was of special interest to me, as the formula was one which I myself have provided. Dissolve the crystals in the Bay Rum and then add the Lavona De Compose; shake thoroughly and apply night and morning. The hair will grow and the scalp will be healthy. This preparation contains no coloring matter, but restores gray hair to its natural color. It is a perfect hair tonic. If you desire it, perfume add one teaspoonful of To-Kalon Perfume, which combines perfectly with the other ingredients and imparts a most pleasant scent.

Before publication we presented this prescription to the Riker-Jaynes Drug Co., this city, and they state that they have filed it many times for their patrons who report most astonishing results from its use.

THE FRATERNITIES

JAMES E. FIFE,
Chief Ranger Court General Shields, F. of A.

Court General Shields, F. of A.,---
Its History and Officers

Court General Shields, No. 46, Foresters of America, is one of the foremost fraternal and benevolent organizations in the city and will celebrate the 21st anniversary of its inception this month. The court has made rapid progress since its formation, increasing from a charter membership of about 50, until at the present time it boasts of over 300. One of the interesting facts in connection with this court is that members work in concord and the offices of honor have always been filled by men of ability, who have vied with each other in increasing the membership and placing the organization on the high basis which it enjoys at the present time.

The court has been rather unfortunate in many respects, inasmuch as from time to time its treasury has been nearly depleted, owing to the amount of money which has been paid out for sick and death benefits, but owing to the generous work of the members, the organization has always been able to weather the storm and come out with a substantial amount in the treasury after fulfilling every obligation.

Court General Shields was instituted on Feb. 27, 1890, the organization having been perfected by prominent local men interested in forestry. The court meets on the second and fourth Thursday of every month at Foresters hall, and a feature of the meetings is the large attendance of members brought about by the interesting programs furnished, which include lectures, addresses, musicals, etc.

The court has paid out large sums of money during the past few years, but at the present time there is a good amount in the treasury. During the past 20 years it has paid on an average of eight funeral and five widow benefits per year and about an average of $500 per year in sick benefits.

The court will celebrate the anniversary of its organization on Thursday, Feb. 23d, by holding a smoke and general good time at Foresters hall.

A CLEVER RUSE
Was Worked to "Beat" a Hotel

BOSTON, Feb. 3.—A clever ruse to "beat" a hotel for food and entertainment came to light yesterday when George E. Weller was before Judge Stevens in the criminal session of the superior court on indictments for larceny and procuring fraudulently entertainment at an inn.

Suffering from paralysis Weller was carried into the courtroom. Owing to his condition and to the fact that restitution had been made he was allowed to go to Canada, where friends will care for him.

He was brought here from Harrisburg, where he had served a sentence in the penitentiary and his case was put over until yesterday in order that he might receive treatment in a hospital.

He registered at the Touraine March 25 and when he left he was indebted to the hotel for $108. After he had been there a few days some one called on the telephone inquiring for him. The person falsely represented him to be the president of a trust company.

He told the clerk to inform Weller that his child had died. Incidentally the clerk was told to "treat him all right." "Trust him, tend to his needs and let him have any money he wants."

The hotel people were inclined to assist the stranger in his hour of affliction. "We broke the news gently to him," said one of the employees. Learning of the death of the child Weller fainted. Coffee and brandy were quickly obtained. Each was given to him and he soon revived.

He had to leave the hotel at once. He was indebted to the hotel, he drew a check for $118, suggested that $75 of it be applied toward his bill and he went away with $43.

In due course the check was returned unpaid. The law was then brought into use.

Next heard of Weller he was in Harrisburg under sentence. On his release he was turned over to a Boston speculator, but he was not the same man physically that he had been. He was physically that he had been the Touraine on March 31.

Dist. Atty. Pollittler told the judge that full restitution had been made to the hotel and he felt the case should be placed on file so that the defendant could go to Canada, where friends promised to care for him.

I then tried the Cuticura Remedies and in two months I was entirely relieved of that awful pest. EXTRA PATROLMAN LANE

Connected With Police Department for 32 Years

RUSSIAN DOCTOR

Tells How He Secured Poison That Killed 40 Persons

INJURIES SERIOUS

Child Met With Accident at French American Orphanage

She Was Struck by Dumb Waiter—She Has Concussion of the Brain, a Broken Jaw and Internal Injuries—Her Condition is Quite Critical

Patrolman Daniel W. Lane, the second oldest member of the police department, in point of service, has rounded out his 32d year as a member of the department, but is just as active as when he joined the force and is regarded by his superiors as one of the most efficient officers on duty today.

During his long term of service he has seen many changes both in the city and in the manner of conducting police affairs. He has also secured in many big arrests, but when questioned relative to some of the big police affairs in which he has taken an active part he is reticent.

Patrolman Lane was appointed a member of the police force January 1879, by Mayor J. A. G. Richardson and on the first of February reported for duty. His first assignment was to a beat in Centralville. At that time there was an unlimited license in Lowell and liquor saloons in Centralville were very numerous. In fact, in one building near Centralville bridge there were four licensed places.

The beats were very large and the hours the officers had to work were long. There was no police telegraph system, neither was there a patrol wagon in those days and when an arrest was made the officer had to lead his prisoner as best he could to the police station. It was anything but an enjoyable task to escort an intoxicated person to the market street building and especially was it hard in handling a person who wanted to fight from the time he was placed under arrest until landed in a cell.

While some persons refer to the olden days as the happy days, they were anything but happy ones for the experienced members of the police department.

Patrolman Lane has the proud distinction of being one of the three men who was ever appointed a regular patrolman without having to pass through a probationary period. The other two men were John Stevens who was for a time one of the trustees of the public cemetery here and John Parsons, who at the present time is at the soldiers' home.

The only member of the department at the present time who has been in service longer than Patrolman Lane is Patrolman Alonzo Page who does police duty at city hall.

In 1881 when Capt. Michael E. McDonald, of the city solicitor's office, was city marshal, Mr. Lane was appointed an inspector, but after performing those duties for some time he preferred a regular beat and when he made the request to City Marshal Jacob Fayer he was returned to one of the beats. He was on duty in Merrimack square for nine years, spent 15 years patrolling Newbury and for the past four years has been on duty at Tower's corner and Central street. He covered various other routes in different parts of the city for shorter periods of time. On various occasions he has been commended for his bravery and notable arrests. He succeeded in capturing a notorious burglar, thief a number of years ago and it is only several months ago that he captured Bogas Muckian, who is now serving a life sentence in state prison. Muckian shot and killed one man and wounded another on the post office steps last August.

In 1882 while Patrolman Lane was doing night duty in Centralville he was shot by a man named McManey, who afterwards made his escape from Lowell and never since has been heard from. The bullet shattered the index finger of his left hand, but the injury did not prove to be dangerous. McManey was arrested the day before by Patrolman Lane and after leaving the court room informed several of his friends that he was going to kill the officer who arrested him, but the men with whom he had talked did not think he was serious in his intention. McManey purchased a revolver and while Patrolman Lane was passing through Coburn street the former drew the revolver and fired at the officer, the bullet lodging in the finger. With the assistance of friends McManey managed to make his escape and since that time the police have been unable to locate him. Patrolman Lane, for over 15 years was one of the inspectors of meat in this city and it was mainly through his vigilance that much bad meat and beef was seized and the proprietors of the stores where it was found prosecuted.

FUNERALS

MORIER—The remains of the late William H. Morier, the second victim of last Saturday's accident, were tenderly laid in their last resting place this morning. The funeral took place at 8:30 o'clock from the home of the deceased's mother-in-law, Mrs. Albert Hamel, and was largely attended by relatives and friends of the deceased. A splendid high mass of requiem was sung at 9 o'clock at Notre Dame de Lourdes church by Rev. Fr. Lemothu, O. M. I., assisted by Rev. Frs. Chaput, O. M. I., and M. L. as deacon and sub-deacon. The choir, under the direction of Mr. H. A. Racicot, rendered Perault's harmonized mass. Miss Alma Alexander presiding at the organ. As the body was being borne from the church, the choir sang De Profundis.

The bearers were: J. B. Julien, Joseph P. Montminy, Timothy Roy, Joseph Magras, Joseph Parent and Eustache Pelletier. The latter and the following assisted as a delegation of St. Antoine, C. O. E., of which deceased was a member: Donald Ducharme, Joseph Draville and Wilfred Desmarais. The local Carpenters' union was represented by the following delegation: Michael Lee, D. St. Martin, Alfred Perron, Samuel Mitchell. Burial was in the family lot in St. Joseph's cemetery, Rev. Fr. Magran, O. M. I., reciting the committal prayers at the grave. The funeral arrangements were in charge of Undertaker Amelie Archambault.

THE REPUBLICANS A LIVELY BLAZE

To Organize City Committee Tonight

LOWELL MAN

MAY HAVE CLAIM TO LAND IN MAINE

A despatch from Hingham, Mass., states that O. F. Stackpole, of that city and John Stackpole, of this city, believe they have come into possession of documents which prove that they have a valid claim on a large tract of land in Kennebunkport known as the Duggins grant.

John J. Stackpole, a barber residing at 65 Bay street, is the only person in Lowell bearing that name and when seen by a representative of The Sun this afternoon, stated that while he had a number of relatives in Maine he knew nothing of the land referred to. He intends, however, to communicate with some of his relatives in Maine and ascertain if he has an equity in the land.

High lodge No. 166 New England Order of Protection held its regular meeting last night and it was attended by a large number despite the stormy weather. One application was balloted on and the new member will be initiated at the next meeting. Brothers Timmons, Smith and Jordan, entertained those present with stories and received great applause.

IN THE BOISVERT BLOCK IN CENTRALVILLE THIS AFTERNOON

But for the timely discovery of a blaze in the basement of the Boisvert building at the corner of West Sixth and Canal streets at 1:40 o'clock this afternoon the structure might have been burned to the ground. The fire had made much headway before it attracted attention and when the firemen arrived on the scene there was a lively blaze in progress and it was with much difficulty that the members of the department confined the damage to the basement.

The building is a wooden affair and owned by Jacques Boisvert. The first floor is used as a bowling alley and poolroom, and on the second floor there is a moving picture theatre.

Leut. Charles Abare of Hose 12 was sitting in the West Sixth street fire house when he noticed smoke issuing from one of the cellar windows in the Boisvert building. Rushing across the street, he found there was a lively blaze in progress and immediately sent in a telephone alarm.

The members of Hose 12 and Truck 1 were soon on the scene and in a few seconds a line of water was playing on the blaze. Owing to the density of the smoke the firemen were handicapped in handling the blaze, but a few minutes later several other pieces of apparatus arrived and after about half an hour of hard work the fire was under control.

That the blaze did not spread to the upper portion of the building was due only to the efficient work of the firemen.

The blaze had its inception in a pile of rubbish in the cellar, but little damage was done to any part of the building other than the cellar and the contents of the latter.

Erud C. Church carried the insurance on the hall and bowling alley of Jacques Boisvert, 33 Canal street, damaged by fire this noon.

Irene Bordeleau, aged 15 years, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gedeon Bordeleau of 102 Dingwell street, is in a bad condition in St. John's hospital, suffering from wounds received in an accident which occurred this morning at the French American orphanage in Pawtucket street.

The young girl who is an inmate of the institution was struck by a dumb waiter which is being used to carry up the food from the kitchen to the dining room. The girl was looking down the slide when the dumb waiter loaded with hot soup, potatoes, rice, etc., was lowered from the second floor to the basement.

She was caught between the partition of the slide and the elevator, and was badly burned about the arms and forearms by the boiling soup which spilled all over her. The Sisters rushed to her rescue and a hurried call for the ambulance was sent in. The unfortunate child was rushed to St. John's hospital, where the attending physician, after examination, said that his patient was suffering from a compound fracture of the jaw, concussion of the brain, severe burns about the arms and internal injuries.

It is not expected that she will recover. The Sisters in charge of the orphanage are heart broken over the accident, and they stated to a Sun reporter this morning that they cannot explain the reason why the young girl was looking down the slide, except that she did it thoughtlessly.

Miss Bordeleau had been in the orphanage for some time and was well liked both by the Sisters and children of the institution.

CITY SOLICITOR

To Argue Demurrer in Case of Hanley Against the City

Men at Work Clearing Snow from Shedd Park Rink—Building Permits Are Coming in Slowly—Term of Dr. Martin Expires Next Monday

City Solicitor Duncan is preparing to argue a demurrer in the case of Hanley against the city of Lowell. It seems that property belonging to the plaintiff was damaged by fire and that the damage to property was increased because of the failure of the fire alarm box to respond when Mr. Hanley or some other person attempted to ring it. Had the alarm responded, it is alleged, the damage would have been much less.

The case was the case under the circumstances. There is a list of cases against the city to be heard at the jury term in Lowell in April. Several claims for land damages due to grade crossing work in Lincoln street will be threatened out in court during the April term.

Shedd Park Rink
Supt. Whitely of the park department got busy on the skating rink at Shedd park this afternoon. Clearing the snow from the rink, which complies with a small job Mr. Whitely put his entire force at work there this afternoon and the rink presented quite a lively scene. Several horses attached to scrapers were doing good service, and Mr. Whitely says he will do his level best to have the rink in good condition for Sunday. He will sprinkle it tomorrow if such a thing be possible. His men were engaged this forenoon in plowing out walks in various parts of the city.

Applications for building permits are coming in rather slowly at the office of the inspector of buildings at city hall. Carpenters are at work in the office, and Mr. Dow thinks it barely possible that the noise of their hammers is keeping applicants for permits away.

City Hall Meetings
The meetings scheduled for today at city hall include a meeting of the board of health. This will be Dr. Martin's last meeting with the board. His term expires on Monday. Meetings of the board of charities, water, board and park commission are scheduled for this evening.

The Montreal visitors are expected in Lowell, Monday or Tuesday of next week. Mr. Ludger Gravel, president general of the society, will arrive in Worcester February 9, and will visit the Artisans of this city a couple of days later.

HELD IN $3000

Westford Man Pleaded Not Guilty to Another Conspiracy Charge

LAWRENCE, Feb. 3.—Fred L. Snow of Lowell, who was held for the grand jury on Wednesday last on a charge of larceny of $1275 and attempted larceny of $115 from the city of Lawrence in connection with the sale of paving blocks, today pleaded not guilty in the municipal court to a charge of conspiracy in the same connection. He was held in $3000 for a hearing on Feb. 10.

LARCENY CHARGE

Two Men Placed Under Arrest

Bernard Bradley, of Locke's avenue off Cushing street, and Louis Duchesne, of Howard street, were arrested this afternoon by Inspectors Martin Maher and John A. Walsh, on complaints charging them with the larceny of brass, belonging to the Massachusetts Mohair Plush Co. in Western avenue.

A few days ago the Mohair Co. reported to the police that a number of brass pieces belonging to machines had been stolen and yesterday the police located some of the fittings in a local junk shop. The place was kept under surveillance and this afternoon it is alleged Bradley tried to sell some brass and was immediately placed under arrest. As a result of an investigation, Molloy & Sons in Market street, suspicion led to connecting Duchesne with the larceny and this afternoon the inspectors went to Howard street only to find that the man had left the house.

Duchesne was seen passing through Railroad street and the inspectors giving chase succeeded in capturing him. Both men will be arraigned in police court tomorrow morning.

WARRANTS SERVED

Attempt to Place Responsibility for Explosion at Communipaw

NEW YORK, Feb. 3.—The efforts started yesterday by the New York and New Jersey officials to place responsibility for the fearful explosion at Communipaw on Wednesday, which cost upwards of 30 lives and caused heavy property loss, resulted today in service of warrants issued late last night in connection with the investigation. Early today James Heeling, owner of the destroyed lighter Katherine W., the powderboat on which dynamite was being towed from the New Jersey Central pier when the explosion occurred, appeared at the city hall police station in Jersey City and gave himself up. Healing's name was on the list of those for whom the authorities announced warrants had been issued. The others on the list include certain officials of the Central railroad of New Jersey and of the E. I. Dupont De Nemours Powder Co., and individuals otherwise involved in the investigation. Besides Heeling they are:

Louis Caldetta, dockmaster of pier number 7 of the Central railroad.

A. Hamilton, general freight agent of the Central.

L. M. Morris, freight agent of the Central at Communipaw.

B. A. or R. G. Morse, assistant manager of the E. I. Dupont De Nemours Co.

Fred Peters, manager of the company.

Charles Ritter, checker on pier 7.

Captain Burr St. John, superintendent of transportation of the company.

Heeling had admitted that his boat had no license to carry explosives but declared that he had never thought one was required.

Other lines of investigation taken up by the authorities yesterday were continued today with unabated vigor. No additions to the list of dead or missing developed during the forenoon.

PILLSBURY'S

THE FLOUR

FOR PARTICULAR PEOPLE

A BUSINESS WOMAN

Who Was Cured by Following a Neighbor's Advice Now
Recommends the Same
Treatment to Other Women.

Most women are subject to special forms of weakness and at one time or another need a safe, reliable tonic for the blood.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are an ideal tonic for women as they are also useful in functional disorders and to the fact that ladies recommend them to one another is due the enormous popularity of this tonic remedy.

Mrs. Mary E. Ficus, of Coal City, Ind., is well known there as she was formerly editor of the "Coal City Record" and now conducts a printing office.

"Some time ago," she says, "I was suffering greatly from weakness. I was sick for three years and was up and down for over a year. My stomach was in a bad condition and didn't digest my food properly. I was very nervous and could not sleep well. When a child I had a severe case of spinal fever and had never felt cured of its effects and think this made my sickness worse."

"A neighbor told me to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills as they had helped her. I took her advice and I got relief from the first few boxes of the pills. I took them steadily until I was cured. They gave me strength and I have had no more trouble with my spine. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are certainly a great medicine for women's ills and I always recommend them."

A booklet, "Plain Talks to Women," will be sent free to any woman suffering from weakness. It explains fully why Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are suited to the needs of weak women of all ages and gives many helpful suggestions in regard to the care of their health.

Women will find in Dr. Williams' Pink Pills the tonic exactly suited to their needs. Most of the ills from which they suffer are due to bloodlessness—a condition which the pills readily correct.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills contain no harmful or habit-forming drugs, and the sufferer who gives them a trial will avoid the danger so common in taking drugs which only deaden pain.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are for sale by all druggists, or will be sent, postpaid, on receipt of price, 60 cents per box; six boxes for $2.50, by the Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y.

CAME TO LIFE

AGED WOMAN HAD BEEN PLACED IN COFFIN

GLASGOW, Ky., Feb. 3.—Mrs. Jane Pitcock, 80 years old, caused a commotion in the mountain hamlet of Gamaliel in Monroe county, by coming to life in her coffin at the funeral in the small white church.

The lid of the coffin had been removed to give the mourners a last look at the supposed dead.

Then the aged woman opened her eyes and stretched forth her hands in silent supplication to those around her. Some ran out of the church in loud-voiced terror, while others fell on their knees beside the coffin and prayed. Several made their way through the streets shouting a resurrection had taken place. The whole countryside was aroused over the occurrence.

The woman remained conscious several hours, murmuring of wonderful visions, then she again sank into unconsciousness, which this time actually ended in death.

U. S. SUPREME COURT

To Decide the Claim of a Chinese Boy

WASHINGTON, Feb. 3.—Out of the claim of Jem Yuen, a Chinese boy locked up in Boston, has arisen a ticklish question of personal rights that may work havoc with immigration regulations of the United States. Yuen asserts that it is his right to give bail pending action of the supreme court of the United States on the validity of his proposed exclusion from this country. He sought admission as a minor son of Chin Ying Don, whom he declared to be a Chinese merchant residing in Boston. The immigration officials rejected his application and the lower courts declined to release him on habeas corpus proceedings. The entire supreme court of the United States will be called on Feb. 20 to decide whether the boy shall be accorded bail, a preliminary application for which was denied by Justice Holmes.

The intricacy of Jem Yuen's case arises from the fact that so much business is before the court that it will not reach his case, just docketed, for probably three years and counsel for the boy declares it an injustice to keep him in prison for that period. An affidavit has been presented to the court to show that Jem Yuen cannot stand the strain. Because of confinement and unaccustomed food it is stated that he is now suffering great impairment of health, recently fainted and had a bad fall, so wounding himself in the face that three stitches were required to close the wound and is so nervously prostrated that a serious result is threatened and feared.

Appeal to the court was made on the theory that even a person convicted of crime, with sentence suspended by appeal, would be entitled to bail. Justice Holmes took the position that Jem Yuen was not compelled to endure imprisonment and that he could give up his attempt to enter the country and ask to take ship for other parts. To this argument Warren (Ky.) counsel for the boy, in a brief just presented to the court, has replied: "But if he is compelled to abandon his case before his rights shall have been determined because unable to endure imprisonment, to which we do not subject the worst convicts while their rights are being determined on appeal, whatever their color, whatever their nationality, whatever their crimes, then both father and son do complain—complain of a denial of justice, complain of a miscarriage of justice."

LAWN TENNIS

CHAMPIONSHIPS MAY BE PLAYED AT NEWPORT

NEW YORK, Feb. 3.—Belief that the national lawn tennis championships would be played this year at Newport as usual was expressed today by many of the tennis experts here for the annual meeting of the United States National Lawn Tennis Association, to be held in the Waldorf-Astoria tonight. An agitation has been under way to take the championships away from Newport and transfer them to Philadelphia or some other city.

It was said, however, that the sentiment of the majority of the western players was against Newport and representatives from that section still expressed hope that the reported collapse of the plan to transfer the scene of the annual national contests was more apparent than real and that the movement might be revived before the time for action was reached.

NIGHT EDITION

LARCENY CHARGE

Man Held in $500 for the Grand Jury

Arthur Wilkinson, aged 21 years, was arrested last night by Inspector John A. Walsh, for alleged larceny of clothing, jewelry and money from a house in upper Market. It is alleged that Wilkinson, together with Herbert Emerson, who was arrested a few days ago by the police, rifled various houses in the Greek colony.

In court this morning Wilkinson was charged with breaking and entering and two counts of larceny. One count alleged that he stole a coat, pants, watch, chain, shirt, necktie, ring and money, all amounting to the value of $39.25, the property of Peter Carandus, while in the second count he was charged with stealing a pair of shoes valued at $3, the property of John Lavenies. He entered a plea of guilty.

Inspector Walsh testified to arresting the young man last night and found the latter wearing the stolen clothes and shoes. The watch and ring were pawned in Lawrence and in all probability will be recovered.

Among the articles stolen was $28 in money which was in three pay envelopes. The inspector said he found two of the empty envelopes, but none of the money.

Probable cause of guilt was found by the court and the defendant was held under $500 for his appearance before the grand jury.

Stole Clothing

Herbert Emerson was charged with the larceny of a coat and pair of trousers, seven razors, three pairs of shears and $1 in postage stamps, the property of Napoleon Jacques, and also the larceny of a razor, the property of John Gurnise.

Napoleon Jacques, who is a barber and resides in Brockton, came to this city recently and worked at his trade. During his stay in this city he occupied a room in a house in Appleton street and one day while he was at work his room was entered and the clothing and barber tools taken.

Emerson had no defense to offer in this case, but in the complaint charging him with stealing the razor from John Gurnise he denied his guilt.

TWO BOYS SHOT

Eleven-Year-Old Girl Was Placed Under Arrest

NEW YORK, Feb. 3.—With two little boys, the eldest only seven, dying in the Cumberland Street hospital, and an eleven-year-old girl under arrest in the rooms of the Children's Society, the Brooklyn detective bureau was at work last night on a mysterious and fearful tragedy of childhood.

They had found little Thomas Kennedy lying face down on the sidewalk at the corner of Steuben street and Williams street at 5 o'clock in the afternoon. They had traced his eleven-year-old playmate, Joseph Britton, to his home, two blocks away, whither the child had almost miraculously made his way with a fatal bullet wound in the temple; they found an old rusty revolver on the walk near the Kennedy boy; they had learned that there were many people in the street at the time of the shooting and yet there was nothing to point to a guilty person except the delicious cry of the dying Britton boy: "Marie did it."

Marie Rido, who lives with her parents, at No. 17 Steuben street, in which building the Kennedy's also live, is the child under arrest. She was taken into custody last night by Detective Callahan, O'Neill and Lynch, after two dramatic episodes. The first was a scene in the hospital at the bed side of the Britton child, who was still unconscious, and who, turning his eyes, already vague with the approach of death, upon the frightened little girl, who was led before him murmured, according to the detectives: "Yes, that's Marie, she did it."

The other scene that this child prisoner, who may be absolutely innocent, was compelled to face was the partial re-enactment of the tragedy at the place where the shooting happened. The police took her, with eight-year-old Josephine Kennedy, a sister of the wounded boy, to the vacant lot where the children had all been playing, and made the little girls go through all their movements before and after the shots were fired.

A strange thing about it was that both girls said they had heard no shots and the one grown witness whom the police located, Naughton Richardson, or No. 183 Emerson avenue, said that he had heard only one. Moreover, there are two bullet wounds in the throat of the Kennedy boy, and the doctor who took him to the hospital said he did not believe that both could possibly have been made by one shot.

These statements, taken in conjunction with the fact that there were two empty shells in the rusty revolver, left the police frankly bewildered. So interested did they become in the case that Acting Captain Coghlan, of the Detective Bureau, took personal charge with three of his staff, and Captain Callen, of the Classon station, as aides, and Borough Inspector Dillon was notified.

HE LOST $800

ALTHOUGH HE HELD FOUR ACES IN HIS HAND

HARTFORD, Conn., Feb. 3.—David Demain in a hotel here yesterday made some strangers and joined a poker game. He bet $100, all he had, on four aces. Then he was allowed to see other raises on his hand. When the cards were shown down there was $800 in the pot. He was told that he could not have it unless he showed that he had lost instead of winning the money he could have made good.

A man who was introduced as the manager of the hotel consented to take charge of the cash until this morning. The supposed manager of the place took Demain's $800 today to show it to the others and asked Demain to wait. Demain waited but the alleged "manager" never came back.

WOMEN'S CLUBS MEET

BOSTON, Feb. 3.—"What shall be the ordering of a child and how shall we do unto him" is a text from the Old Testament which might well be set down as the theme for consideration in Park street church today. This place was chosen for the mid-winter meeting of the state federation of women's clubs by New Hampshire's daughters, the hostess club. The auditorium was filled with delegates who listened to an interesting program which had for its underlying motives the training of children.

Rabbi Stephen F. Wise of New York spoke on "The new world and the child," and President Emily Charles Eliot of Harvard discussed "Modern industry and child life."

STOCK MARKET

WAS WEAK AT THE CLOSE THIS AFTERNOON

A Tendency to Drop Developed in the Final Hour—Other Features of the Day's Trading

NEW YORK, Feb. 3.—Heaviness of Americans in the London market today had some reflection at the opening here when most of the active issues were fractionally under last night's close. U. S. Steel yielded 3/4, and Erie, Chesapeake & Ohio, Reading and St. Paul receded 1/4. Some advances were registered, however, Pacific Mail gaining a point, Amal. Copper 1/4 and Penna. 1/4.

Prices moved upward after the opening, but selling on the advances weakened the market. Reading was sold freely, falling back a point from its best and several other railroad issues were heavy, including Northern Pacific, which lost a point. U. S. Steel sagged under constant pressure. Pacific Mail was offered liberally on the rise and reacted 1/2. Interborough Metropolitan pld. showed exceptional strength, moving up 1/2, and there were notable gains in various other specialties.

Surface conditions during the morning reflected further selling of stocks for profits with diminished buying power, but the undertone was moderately firm. The usual leaders, United States Steel, Union Pacific and Reading, were under intermittent pressure. The copper stocks were again strong, despite diverging views on current trade conditions. The Gould group was up between 1 and 2 points, with Missouri Pacific the feature. Before mid-day Reading was lifted to 150 1/2, its recent high level and Lehigh Valley also gained a point. Bonds were firm.

The market held firm with a further advance in the dealers, Lehigh Valley rising to 181, and Norfolk & Western gaining a point.

The market presented a spotty appearance, selected stocks displaying great strength, while the general market was restrained by professional selling.

The market closed weak. A pronounced downward tendency developed in the final hour.

THE ROBIN CASE

Jerome Refused to Plead For His Client

NEW YORK, Feb. 2.—William Travers Jerome, former district attorney of New York county, confronted in court yesterday Edward Swann, the judge whom he called Wednesday night "a half baked judge, who holds office by the grace of Charlie Murphy." He did not repeat his characterization, although the court repeatedly invited him to do so, with the promise that his language would be held privileged. He acknowledged, however, the substance of his criticism, refused to retract them and would not plead guilty or not guilty for his client, Joseph G. Robin, the indicted banker, when the court directed him to do so. It was the question of Robin's sanity which precipitated the controversy.

Judge Swann explained his attitude after court had adjourned. "If it can be shown to me," he said, "that Jerome knew a reporter was present and taking notes, with the intention of publishing his speech on Wednesday night before the Academy of Medicine, there won't be any fine, but I'll give you his cell number." "It is not contempt of court to abuse a judge outside the court. This has been held by the higher courts. I have requested the newspaper in which the report of his attack was published, to inform me if Mr. Jerome knew a reporter was present to take down his speech when he made it. He has said that he did not."

Weak Heart

Many people suffer from weak hearts. They may experience shortness of breath on exertion, pain over the heart, or dizzy feelings, oppressed breathing after meals or their eyes become blurred, their heart is not sufficiently strong to pump blood to the extremities, and they have cold hands and feet, or poor appetite because of weakened blood supply to the stomach. A heart tonic and alternative should be taken which has no bad after-effect. Such is Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, which contains no dangerous narcotics or alcohol.

The ingredients, as attested under oath, are Stone root (Collinsonia canadensis), Bloodroot (Sanguinaria canadensis), Golden Seal root (Hydrastis canadensis), Queen's root (Stellaria media), Black Cherry bark (Prunus virginiana), Mandrake root (Podophyllum peltatum), with triple refined glycerine, prepared in a scientific laboratory in a way that no druggist could imitate.

This tonic contains no alcohol to shrink up the red blood corpuscles; but, on the other hand, it increases their number and they become round and healthy. It helps the human system in the constant manufacture of rich, red blood. It helps the stomach to assimilate or take up the proper elements from the food, thereby helping digestion and curing dyspepsia, heart-burn and many uncomfortable symptoms, stops excessive tissue waste in convalescence from fever; for the run-down, anemic, thin-blooded people, the "Discovery" is refreshing and vitalizing. Stick to this safe and sane remedy, and refuse all "just as good" medicines offered by the druggist who is looking for a larger profit. Nothing but Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery will do you half as much good.

GRAND SHOWING

Made by Les Artisans
Canadiens Français

Two of the local branches of Les Artisans Canadiens Français, branch St. Louis and branch St. Andre, held their regular semi-monthly meeting last night.

The annual report of the society whose headquarters are in Montreal, Que., was read at both meetings, and was received with joy by the members, for it shows a large increase both in membership and in reserve fund, notwithstanding the fact that a large number of members have passed away, and a big amount has been paid in death and sick benefits during the year.

DR. ADELARD PAYETTE

the past year. The report also shows the good a benefit mutual organization will do in helping the widow and the orphan, and in aiding a sick member. From January 1st to December 31st, 1910, the society has paid in death benefits, $274,652.13, and in sick benefits, $128,268.28. The increase in the reserve fund for the past year has been $140,978.24. The organization which extends in Canada and the New England states has 440 branches, and counts 36,656 active members, although it recorded 304 deaths during the past 12 months.

Since its inception the society has paid $2,536,628.53 in death benefits, and $1,204,569.24 in sick benefits. Its reserve fund on December 31, 1910, was $1,487,740.54.

Branch St. Louis
The members of branch St. Louis held their meeting in the Centralville

Social club rooms in Lakeview avenue. President Albert Marcotte occupied the chair. After the initiation of a member, the following officers were installed for the coming term by L. O. Beauregard, representative to the executive council, Alphonse Dalphoné acting as his assistant:

President, Joseph Gregoire; first vice president, Joseph Payette; second vice president, E. J. Laroche; treasurer, E. J. Laroche; secretary, Armand Trudel; marshals, Edouard Pelquin, Come Lefebvre; auditors, Adolphe Bouchard, Maxime Lepine and Henri Thellier; representative to the executive council, Albert Marcotte.

After the installation, retiring President Albert Marcotte was presented a handsome gold signet ring as a token of esteem from his brethren. The presentation speech was delivered by Maxime Lepine. A smoke talk followed, during which an entertaining program and speeches were rendered. Branch St. Andre

A well attended meeting of branch St. Andre was held in C. M. A. C. Hall in Pawtucket street, Mr. Orsine Desceaux presiding. Three applications for membership were received, and it was unanimously voted to hold a recruiting contest which will last three months, beginning in March.

The newly elected officers were installed by Edmond Berger, assisted by Orsine Desceaux. The officers installed were:

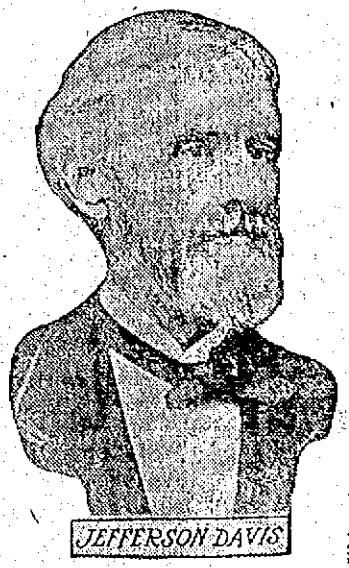

President, Henri Hamilton; first vice president, J. A. I. Michaud; second vice president, Joseph Theriault; secretary and treasurer, Dr. Adelard Payette; auditors, Joseph Dion, William Brautigan, Emmanuel Grenier; marshals, Charles Normandin and Arthur Dupont; representative to the executive council, Edmond Berger. Mr. Normandin is beginning his seventh consecutive term as marshal of that branch.

Remarks were made by the new board of officers, and at the close of the meeting the president elect presented the retiring president a fine gold chain and charm, the latter engraved with the emblem of the society.

50 YEARS AGO

RICHMOND, Va., Feb. 3.—It is being commented on here that it was 50 years ago, on Feb. 3, that Jefferson Davis was selected president and Alexander Stephens vice president of the confederate states by the Montgomery provisional congress.

COFFEE PARTY

DREW LARGE GATHERING TO GRACE CHURCH

Despite the inclement weather, a large gathering attended the regular monthly coffee party at the Grace Universalist church last evening. Later an entertainment given by "visiting talent" was in order. Miss Minnie E. Clifford had charge of it, and the program was as follows: Song,

TO SHAKESPEARE

British American Club
to Honor His Name

A large gathering of representative British-American residents assembled in Odd Fellows temple, last evening to discuss the feasibility of formally observing Shakespeare's birthday. Mr. Fred G. Humphreys presided and Geo. Emley acted as secretary. It was voted to hold a banquet on April 26, Shakespeare's birthday, to which prominent guests will be invited. A committee was appointed to make the necessary arrangements with the following members: Messrs. Hogg, Booth, Southam, Williams, Hunt, Whitaker, Oliver, Blown and Emley. The matter of permanent organization was then discussed, which resulted in the birth of the Shakespeare Social club, and the following officers were duly elected: President, James Hogg; vice president, Walter Booth; treasurer, Brook Southam; secretary, Alex. E. Williams.

Shoe Distinction

The style of present day footwear—the class that attaches to it—is traceable to the perfection of Goodyear Welt shoemaking machines.

These machines perform every function of manufacture—the cutting of the leather—the stitching—the lasting—the soling.

Their product is recognized as the very best—best in appearance—best in comfort—best in durability. Every conceivable style is produced for men, women and children.

GOODYEAR WELT

is the name of a process by which shoes are made and is not the name of a shoe. The public must remember this. A narrow strip of leather called a welt is first sewed to the leather upper and insole.

Five hundred of these strong close stitches are inserted in a minute. Shoddy leather or inferior leather cannot withstand this swift darting needle.

Only fine and flawless leather can be used on the machines that build Goodyear Welt shoes. Then another wonderful machine lock-stitches the heavy leather outer sole to this flat welt around the outside of the shoe.

But all seams are outside, not a single lock-stitch has penetrated to max the inside smoothness of the shoe. Your comfort is assured.

This explains why you don't have to "break in" Goodyear Wels. If properly fitted you can put them on and wear them out of the store.

To get Goodyear Wels write for our list of five hundred names of shoes made by this process. Get this list before you buy another pair of shoes. Take it to your regular shoe store. Find out what Goodyear Wels your dealer sells.

Your name and address brings the Goodyear Welt list. Two other interesting booklets will be sent you, one illustrating the Sixty Machines, the other "The Secret of The Shoe—An Industry Transformed." Write for them.

THREE DOLLARS PER YEAR. TWENTY-FIVE CENTS PER MONTH

The sworn daily average circulation of The Lowell Sun for the year 1910 was

15,976

Sworn to by John H. Harrington, proprietor, Martin H. Reidy, business manager, and Alfred Pilote, pressman, of The Sun, before me, January 2, 1911. J. JOSEPH MENNESSY, Notary Public.

If "Tech" moves from Boston, Lowell should offer it a refuge and a home. It is an institution that should not be allowed to go begging.

Ex-President Roosevelt in a letter to the Progressive Republican League declares himself an ultra radical. He has apparently set out to discount President Taft, William Jennings Bryan and President Comper in radical pronouncements.

There is no class in Lowell that should be more ready to support the new charter than the labor organizations. When party designations will be abolished, the labor unions will still be able to exert their influence as such through their organizations, and in this they will have an advantage that other citizens will not possess.

TO STAMP OUT THE SHADY BABY FARMS

In enacting a law to place all maternity homes and baby farms under state supervision, the legislature of New Hampshire has taken the right stand for the protection of abandoned and dependent children. Through an investigation conducted last summer by Miss Mary Boyle O'Reilly a great many of these baby farms were shown to be harboring loose women, mothers who left their babies behind subject to cruel treatment of the worst kind. Sometimes abuses of this kind flourish under the guise of charity just as did the lying in homes and baby farms in New Hampshire, but as soon as their real character was exposed the people determined to stamp out the blot. The new law, we understand, calls for state supervision that should be a guarantee that right conditions must prevail in all licensed places and that no unlicensed places can exist.

THE COMMISSION CHARTER BOOMING

The commission form of city charter is rapidly spreading in the west, and unless it meets the expectations of the people there will be a great many disappointed by its adoption. No less than thirty-four cities in Missouri applied to the legislature last week asking for an enabling act that would permit them to adopt this form of government without going through the formality of waiting for a special act for each particular city.

A number of states including Kansas, Iowa, Colorado, Illinois, Wisconsin, Michigan and Minnesota have already granted many cities the authority asked for by the Missouri cities. Hence it appears that the commission form of government such as is proposed for Lowell in the new charter is booming all over the country. While the charter may be very good, it might prove the reverse unless good men be selected under its provisions. This is true of all charters, and is something that depends entirely upon the voters.

ARE WE OVER-GOVERNED?

President Treadway of the state senate, in a talk before a club in Boston the other night, made the statement that the people of this state are much over-governed and over-officered. He points out that during the last decade the expenses of state departments have increased out of all proportion to the increase in business and population.

For example, he shows that the total expense of the state department in 1900 was $7,764,464, whereas last year the expense of the same department was $13,521,162. He shows also from statistics that the expense of the state commissions has increased in far greater proportion, some of them having increased their expenditures during the ten years over 120 per cent.

If what President Treadway says is true, and we have no reason to doubt his statements, it would appear that there is good reason for Governor Foss's determination to consolidate a number of these state boards rather than to allow them to go on increasing their expenditures from year to year, and forming unnecessary extensions of their official jurisdiction, all of which may justify the charge that we are over-governed.

THE PUBLIC HALL QUESTION

The need of a public hall is emphatically felt whenever there is a public agitation that requires the assembling of the masses for public discussion. The work of enlightening public opinion upon the city charter question is a case in point. Whenever a charter or anything that is new is brought forward somebody must take the initiative.

In this matter of the city charter a representative committee of sixty citizens was brought together to further the work of drafting a charter and putting it before the legislature in order to get a chance to submit it to the people for adoption or rejection. That committee has been obliged to go to society halls and ward rooms in order to tell the people about the new charter, and explain its provisions, whereas if a public hall were available a mass meeting might be called at which all citizens could assemble and hear the discussion. They could there ask questions and get correct information in regard to the provisions of the charter. But there is no public hall available, and there is slight prospect that such a luxury will be available for a considerable time to come.

The city council does not seem disposed to take hold and settle the matter in a business-like way. The final decision rests with that body, and in order to have the work started during the coming summer, some definite action should be taken without delay.

The Green school has been suggested as a suitable site. If no site can be found nearer to the business centre of the city, the Green school will serve as an extension of the municipal centre. The building might also be used as part of the new structure.

The public hall, however, should have not only one or two large assembly halls, but it should have a number of smaller halls in which society meetings could be held. It appears that the idea of connecting a system of public baths with the public hall has been abandoned, and, we think, very properly, as both could not be conveniently conducted in the same building.

SEEN AND HEARD

"Billy" Quinn, who was appointed to the police force Tuesday night, is a son of the late John J. Quinn, who for years was captain of Engine 4, at the High street house, and if he makes the record as a policeman that his father did as a fireman, the police department will have a very valuable man. "Billy" is quite an athletic, possesses good judgment, and was first man on the civil list having a remarkably good rank.

THE LOVE WHICH ABIDES

My heart goes out in longing and dreaming of the days We two have spent together, in winding woodland ways.

The hours are all so sweet, dear, that I have spent with you, And they are ours for aye, whatever else we do.

I see you half-reclining in mother's old armchair, In the home that is so perfect since you have entered there.

I see you sitting by me, and watching all I do; Or telling me so softly how much I mean to you.

I seem to feel your fingers touching mine when last we met, I see your lips entreating, and tear-dimmed eyes still wet.

I seem to feel your presence, no matter where you are; My heart is always with you, whether near or far.

And so it is I love you, from morning's early dawn, Till blessed night brings with it sweet dreams of dear days gone.

—Alice Gordon in Springfield Union.

PEOPLE OF NOTE

The first blind pupil to graduate from the public schools of New York is William Scherck, 15 years old, of Bay Side, L. I., who has just received his diploma. He entered school in 1899 without the slightest knowledge of the Braille system, although three years before he had some experience with the point system used at the New York Institute for the Blind. It took him three weeks to master the new system and three weeks more put him at the head of his class. In the recent final examinations the questions were read aloud to him and he answered them on a typewriter with a percentage of 90.15, the highest mark of all the 450 pupils. Dr. William H. Maxwell, superintendent of the New York schools, told the board of education last week that the lad's rapid progress was the most remarkable he had ever noted in his experience as an educator.

A complimentary luncheon was given to Mrs. Ellen H. Richards, '73, by the Massachusetts Institute of Technology Women's association, in commemoration of the conferring of the honorary degree of doctor of science upon her by Smith college last October. There were about 100 members and guests. During the luncheon, a purse of $1000 was presented to Mrs. Richards, to be used for carrying on her research work at the institute.

A great collection of Washingtoniana is on exhibition at the old Roger Morris house of revolutionary days, better known as the Jumel mansion, near the 157th street station of the subway and the 153rd street station of the Sixth avenue elevated road. The collection was made by William Lexter Washington, who is sixth in descent from Gen. Washington's brother, and is the regular representative of his celebrated collateral ancestor in the Order of the Cincinnati. Mr. Washington, finding the collection had grown too large for private control, lent it to the Washington Headquarters Museum, which, by the Washington Headquarters association, founded by the Daughters of

A Boston branch of the Wesleyan alumni committee was appointed at the annual session of the New England Alumni association at Young's Hall, Boston, to aid in raising a $100,000 endowment fund for Wesleyan university. Vernon B. Swift, '96, presided and there were 75 alumni present. The guests of honor included President William Arnold Shanklin of the university, Professor C. A. T. Winchester, Judge J. F. President Shanklin reported that the freshman class this year is the largest on record, comprising 133 men.

The Idaho Statesman tells a pretty story of love and marriage. Recently Joseph Hooker, a full blooded Nez Perce Indian, who has been in the preparatory department of the Carlisle Indian school, married a Nez Perce girl of 19 and is taking her with him back to school, where they will study together. In true Indian fashion Mr. Hooker bought 40 acres of land in the northern portion of Idaho and gave it to the father of his wife as a compensation for the loss of the daughter's services, she being the only able-bodied woman in the tribe. The acquaintance began between Mr. Hooker and his wife years ago when they were children, and he has ever had the same intention to earn and save money to educate both. The wife has never attended school, but he has had three years in Haskell and Carlisle. While he was studying for six years at the Carlisle school, he has been earning and saving money, and he now feels that he can make the great attempt. From two to three years is the time he will need. While the time is passing, they are assured of the comforts of a home, so they have married.

John Burnett Collins, Yale university '31, died last March. He left a bequest of $50,000 to the university; the disposition of this fund to rest with a committee from his class. This committee has decided to invest the $50,000 in the Wright memorial dormitory, taking an entry in the dormitory as a memorial to Mr. Collins. The subscription being given under the condition that the total amount required for the dormitory should be raised in the near future. The Wright memorial committee has now secured subscriptions of over $187,000, leaving less than $63,000 to complete the total of $250,000. The committee is giving to donors of $5000 memorial suites, consisting of a study and two bedrooms. The following suites have already been given: Mrs. John Hay, in memory of her son, Adelbert Stone Hay, '38; Mrs. A. J. Belo, in memory of her son, Alfred H. Belo, '36; Miss Chrysler, in memory of her brother, Theodore Chrysler, '32; Henry Rogers Whitcomb, '36, in memory of his father, Eugene Whitcomb, '32, for many years a member of the Yale corporation; Mrs. Edward N. Gibbs, in memory of her brother, Geo. Payson Barker, '36.

Miss Elsa D. James of Buffalo, N. Y., a graduate of Wellesley college, class of '08, has been given the college scholarship of $1000 in memory of the late Sophie Jewett, associate professor of English literature.

AT SESSION OF THE BROTHERHOOD WELFARE ASS'N.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Feb. 3.—A row was almost precipitated at yesterday's session of the Brotherhood Welfare association, made up of unemployed, when President James Eads How, in disposing of routine business, offered to read a letter to the members of the association from President Taft.

"I have here," said How, "a letter from Mr. Taft and also a circular stating that men are wanted for the United States army and navy. What is the pleasure of the convention?"

"The delegates at once shouted 'Tear 'em up; throw 'em away. If Taft wants to talk to us let him come here.'"

He quelled the tumult by laying two letters and circular aside. The letter from the president was said to be the hoped the convention would be beneficial to the unemployed, and that lasting results would obtain. It was written in response to a letter requesting him to come to Milwaukee to address the meeting.

Rev. Francis E. Clark, D. D., founder of the society and its president, reviewed its growth. Samuel H. Chapin, LL. D., presided, and Gov. Eugene N. Foss opened the exercises.

Urges Indictment of Lawyer Epstein

NEW YORK, Feb. 3.—Mayor Gaynor wrote a letter last night to Archibald Watson, corporation counsel, in which he demands that evidence looking to the indictment of Alfred Epstein, a lawyer, for alleged forgery, be laid before the district attorney and that the latter be "put before the bar" as a condition for the disbarment of Epstein.

The mayor charges that Epstein brought a taxpayer's action against him (the mayor) in the name of Julia Smith, who, he says, is a maniacist, apparently without real estate, and therefore not qualified to bring a taxpayer's suit, either to restrain the taxpayer from paying taxes, or to obtain payment of the famous Cohalan warrant. He also charges that Epstein afterward brought another taxpayer's suit "in the name of another alleged taxpayer," to stop the payment of the city chamberlain's salary; that Epstein presented three notes to the Carnegie Trust company, the endorsement of which, he subsequently acknowledged to Leslie A. Shaw, former secretary of the United States treasury and afterward president of the Carnegie Trust company, were either forged by him or with his knowledge; and, finally, that "I have also evidence that a sensational and untrustworthy newspaper paid Epstein to bring these sham suits."

UNIONIST PRESS

GIVES ITS ATTENTION TO RECI-PROCI-QUESTION

LONDON, Feb. 2.—The Unionist press (the Daily Telegraph) abandoned the discussion of the veto bill and the house of lords, and taken up the reciprocity agreement as the most live issue of the hour. The Unionist editorials assert that tariff reform and imperial preference are more urgent than even.

Interviews on the question are sought with all the prominent men. The Canadian financier, W. M. Aitken, who was elected member of the house of commons for Ashton-Under-Lyne, expresses the view that the United States has been so wasteful of its national resources that it is compelled to look to Canada's untapped resources to prevent impending disaster.

The Standard in an editorial says: "Canada is mistress of the situation—agreement or no agreement—yet. The Canadian ministers have allowed themselves to be hypnotized by the brilliance of the American offer, and have fallen into the trap Taft so carefully laid."

The Daily Telegraph says that there is still time for the mother country to act to bring Canada into a wide scheme of imperial preference. "The choice," says the Telegraph, "is between keeping and losing Canada, between saving the empire and allowing it to drift dissolution. The possibilities of imperial preference in connection with the United States are wider than ever. The whole question, if we are wise, may be placed by future Unionist negotiation with Washington and Ottawa upon a higher and more practical basis. To the double purpose of imperial union and Anglo-American friendship the present reciprocity project will be no obstacle, but a strong help."

SONS OF BROWN

BOOM WALKER FOR THE GOVERNORSHIP

BOSTON, Feb. 3.—Proclaiming in song and cheers their toastmaster and President, Joseph Walker of the class of 1887 as the next governor of Massachusetts, the Sons of Brown university of Boston, and vicinity, celebrated their 33rd annual banquet at the Hotel Somerset last night. The dean of the university also received an enthusiastic reception, Alexander Melikoff being present in the unavoidable absence of President Faince.

The address of the evening was delivered by Gov. Robert P. Bass of New Hampshire, the greater part of whose address was devoted to a review of the power the Boston & Maine railroad, formerly exorted in New Hampshire politics, the governor also describing the fight which had been made to redeem the state from the power of the bosses.

Reminiscences of college life were given by James Burrill Angel, LL. D., 40, president-elect of the University of Michigan; Edward Judson, D. D., '65 of New York city and Herman Carey Bumpus, Ph. D., of New York city.

Officers for the next year were elected as follows: President, Richard Olney, '56; vice president, Frederick D. Ely, '57; John G. Gifford, '74; Sam Walter Posa, '32 and Joseph Walker, '37; secretary, Rufus E. Corlow, '38; treasurer, Fred W. Woodcock.

THE SUGAR CO.

TO INVESTIGATE ACTS OF LATE HENRY O. HAVEMEYER

NEW YORK, Feb. 3.—Not only is the American Sugar Refining company indirectly fighting young Horace Havemeyer for the $10,000,000 common stock issue of the National Sugar Refining company, a subsidiary, but it is going to scrutinize the official activities of his father, the late Henry O. Havemeyer, generally recognized as the trustee-governor, James M. Beck, counsel for the American Sugar Refining company issued a statement last night in part as follows:

"I may add for the information of the stockholders of the American Sugar Refining company and the public generally that the present management of that company regards to consider with great care the question as to whether the late Mr. Havemeyer did not, as its president, by acts of omission and commission inflict losses upon the stockholders, which they should not in equity bear. It intends to make an earnest effort to fix the responsibility for past losses, where it belongs."

Rubber Goods and Storehouse in Malden Destroyed

MALDEN, Feb. 3.—Upwards of $200,000 worth of rubber goods in the storehouse of the Converse Independent Rubber company went up in flames last night when the storehouse and its contents were entirely destroyed by fire. The blaze generated unusual heat, which seriously warped the nearby tracks of the western division of the Boston & Maine railroad, tying up traffic there for hours, and burning out telephone, telegraph and electric light wires for some distance around.

It was the shrill whistling of the sirens on passing locomotives that drew the attention of Engineer William O'Connell to the blaze, which then was burning in the northeast corner of the second floor. The storehouse, a two-story wooden structure of about 13,000 square feet, is located at the foot of Pearl street, connected with the company's factory by a wooden runway. When the apparatus arrived the hydrant supply of water was sufficient to allow the use of only four lines of hose, and the flames were forced to allow the flames to run havoc over the storehouse, in order to save the more valuable manufactured goods in the factory.

For a time the asbestos covering of the storehouse concealed the full extent of the blaze, but soon the flames penetrated this and when the sprinklers in the building stopped, the fire was unconfined. The stopping of the sprinklers however, gave a new supply to the hydrant lines, and the fight to save the factory was eventually successful. The cause of the blaze is unknown.

Marquis M. Converse, late tonight estimated his loss at over $200,000. Mr. Converse said the manufactured goods and crude rubber in the building were valued at about $200,000 and the building itself cost the concern $17,000 within a year. The entire damage is covered by insurance.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 3.—About 150 republican members of the house attended the caucus last night to decide upon the party policy as to congressional reapportionment on the basis of the latest census. The first bill considered was that reported by Mr. Crumpacker of Indiana, chairman of the house committee on census, fixing the house membership after March 3, 1913, at 433, on a ratio of population to each representative of 211,877, as against 191,132 as at present.

This action, with the defeat of a plan to offset the negro disfranchisement in the south, urged by Messrs. Bennett and O'Connell, of New York, and opposed by Mr. Haines of West Virginia and others, occurred during a lively three hours session of the caucus.

Several proposals were pending, including Mr. Campbell's leaving the house as it stands today; or that of Mr. Elkins of Missouri, favoring 402 members; that of Mr. Stafford of Wisconsin, for 397 members; reverting views said to be held by Speaker Cannon and some other house leaders from the larger states, and that of Mr. Crumpacker for 433 members, urged at the outset by its author. The Campbell plan was first taken up and finally prevailed. The carrying out of the scheme was left to the census committee which will prepare the way for action at this session of congress.

The caucus became rather stormy when the Bennett anti-disfranchisement plan was proposed. It directed preparation of a bill to carry out section 2 of the 14th amendment to the federal constitution, so to cut down the representation of any state in proportion as the negroes were disfranchised by such a state. It was defeated after considerable speech making, by a vote of 72 to 48.

THE HIGH SCHOOL

SOON TO PRESENT THE MIKADO IN FINE STYLE

Great preparations are being made at the High School for the presentation of "The Mikado," the Japanese comic opera, in two acts by Gilbert and Sullivan. Everybody is more or less familiar with "The Mikado," and everybody loves it. It is full of charming situations and delightful phrases and the eye or ear of the most sensitive is never offended.

The play will be presented by pupils and graduates of the High School on Friday evening, Feb. 17, and Saturday afternoon and evening, Feb. 18. A stage has been built to accommodate a chorus of 75 and about all of the principal parts will be taken by present pupils of the school, assisted by a few more recent graduates who are good singers.

Principal Cyrus W. Irish is very much interested in the coming event, as is also Edward T. Goward of the school board. Mr. Goward thinks there is a great deal in the line of comic opera that is quite new and "The Mikado," this may be accounted for, perhaps, by the fact that he was once a participant in the presentation of it.

The school board, Principal Irish and everybody else interested in or connected with the affair are extremely thankful to the Merrimack Manufacturing company for the goods for the costumes, over 60 different kinds in all. The costumes will be fresh, new and very beautiful. The stage scenery will be exceptionally good and great interest is being manifested on all sides.

The play will be given under the direction of Mr. Frederick C. Blunt and Miss Leah A. DeMerritt. The orchestra will be under the direction of Emil C. Lavigne with Mr. George K. Smith as pianist.

Forrest B. Leggat will assume the role of "Nanki-Poo," the mikado's son, who is taken by Charles H. Hillier. Other parts will be cared for as follows: "Ko-Ko," lord high executioner of Titipu, Edward F. Slattery; "Pooh-Bah," lord high everything else, Breckell A. "Nanki-Poo," a noble lord, Donald F. Hanson; "Turk-Mun," a "Sing," and "Prep-Bo," three sisters, "Ko-Ko," E. Irene Hogan, Lillian G. Powers and Olive Eveleth; "Kathia," an elderly lady in love with "Nanki-Poo," Mary A. Mack. There will be a large chorus of school girls, nurses, guards, and so on.

The affair will be one of the real attractions of the winter season, and coming at a time when attractions in different in character are holding the boards, it is expected that all three performances will be well attended.

NEW YORK, Feb. 3.—Frank J. Marshall, the United States champion who has led in the national chess tournament practically from the start, will either win the tournament in the final round today or tie for leadership with the Cuban champion, Jose R. Capablanca. The Cuban is assured of second place if he beats Johnson today and of a tie with Marshall if the national champion loses to Kreymerberg. Marshall has drawn three games, but has not one of the 11 played.

One of Chicago, who has kept close to Marshall, ended his play in the tournament today with a draw with A. B. Hodges. This leaves him with hope of only second place at best, and of retirement to third should Capablanca win today.

Marshall, playing Tenenwurzel, took a place on the ninth move. Queen gambit declined and won after 24 moves, in the semi-final yesterday.

Capablanca, pitted against D. G. Baird, played his favorite variation of the Ruy Lopez and outplayed his opponent, ending in 50 moves.

CHARGES MADE

AGAINST THE RUSSIAN MINISTER OF MARINE

ST. PETERSBURG, Feb. 3.—The duma committee on national defense has drawn up a formidable indictment charging the ministry of marine with diverting the credits voted in 1908-09 for torpedo boats and submarines for the Black sea and with disregarding the naval program approved by the emperor, and neglect of Russia's defensive needs.

The report dwells on Turkey's naval developments in the Black sea and raises a warning of possible disaster, the consequences of which cannot be foreseen.

A BIG SHORTAGE

Found in Treasurer St. John's Accounts

NEW YORK, Feb. 3.—The body of Edward St. John, assistant treasurer of the Westinghouse Electric & Manufacturing company of New York, Pittsburgh and other cities, was found in the surf off Coney Island yesterday. It was fully dressed and no other theory is advanced than that he committed suicide by drowning some time during the past 24 hours, because of a shortage in his accounts due to speculation in Wall street with the company's funds. The amount is estimated to be not greater than $50,000.

"The shortage was not discovered until after the report of his suicide yesterday," said Vice President Charles A. Terry of the Westinghouse company, last night. "St. John had been in the employ of the Westinghouse company more than ten years and the latter half of that time had been assistant treasurer here. He had charge of collections and disbursements and his misappropriation of negotiable securities, which he handled, is a surprise to all his associates, who regarded him as a most trustworthy man. We have this must have been his only weakness and his first fall. We have not determined definitely the extent of his shortage, but I do not believe it is over $50,000. He was bonded to the extent of only

BILL TO INSURE THEM MAY BE PASSED

LONDON, Feb. 3.—The government hopes at the coming session of parliament to pass the bill for compulsory insurance against unemployment. This will be put into effect next January and it will be experimental, to be applied to 2,500,000 skilled and unskilled workers in the building, shipbuilding and engineering trades and administered through the labor exchanges. The men are to contribute approximately six pence weekly, the employers and the state contributing the same amount. Unemployed persons will receive about 10 shillings a week.

"At the Old Cross Roads" was the attraction at the Opera House last night and, despite the storm, it was largely attended. This melodrama by Arthur C. Aston has been presented here for several years and has already attained popularity. The drama has a tinge of southern romance dealing as it does with the love affairs of Annabel Thornton and Tom Martin. The fact that the young woman has negro blood in her veins comes to light at a critical moment when the marriage had been planned. The girl herself was ignorant of this fact in her hereditary and refused to go on with the marriage, but her fiancé would not let this disclosure upset his plans. The girl's mother, hitherto unknown, plots to kill the young man and succeeds at the "Old Cross Roads." The exciting situations are numerous and the close of the play colors up the cloud of mystery in which the thread of the plot was involved.

The part of Parapa, Annabel's mother, was ably assumed by Miss Mary Deane, who won much applause by her singing.

Those who assumed the other roles and assisted in the success of the performance were Florence Ockerman and Leila Bennett, James J. Edwards, T. F. Mulligan, Sam B. Wilson, W. R. Healey, Leon Williams, Kraft Walton and Madeline Mark.

HATHAWAY THEATRE

Donald Meek, who plays the part of "Tom Brown" in "Brown of Harvard," never had such unlimited opportunities as he has in this comedy of college life. This statement is made with a full knowledge that Mr. Meek was the leading comedian with the John Craig Stock company, at the Castle Square theatre, Boston, for three years, and where all his parts were arranged by Mr. Craig to suit his somewhat peculiar methods. The Donald Meek Stock company, with Severin DeDeyn, makes its initial bow to Lowell theatregoers. In this play, Rida Johnson Young is the author, as she is also of "Glorious Betsy," in which Mary Manering starred last season, and "Naughty Marietta," which is one of the few New York successes of the present season. Supporting Mr. Meek and Mr. DeDeyn are Inez Buck, Gertrude Franklin Lynch, Ada Allan, Anna Wilbur, Dorris Dutton, James Davett, Wm. Thompson, Jack Keller, Dan McCabe, Harry Taylor and F. W. Laffey. At this popular little play house Saturday night and week of Feb. 6.

MERRIMACK SQUARE THEATRE

An unusual animal act is Spessady's World Famous Bears, appearing at the Merrimack Square theatre this week. The offering is full of sensational features, the big bears doing all manner of amazing stunts, and stunts amusing as well. The great Dane dog with the circus is one of its most talented performers also.

Among the other features on the bill is the Buckley-Martin Co. presenting the amusing sketch "The Busy Manager." It is a long laugh from curtain to curtain. Then there are Hallway and Sigel, singers and dancers, the Golden Gate Trio, first class singers who can do eccentric dancing better than most; and Miss Anna McManis, interpreter of the latest illustrated songs.

COLONIAL THEATRE

An unusually strong bill is being presented for the last half of this week at the Colonial theatre. Rub and Bertha Hyde in the "Stage Struck Rub" have an act that is a scream from start to finish. There is a laugh in every line.

John Barrett & Co. have also a sketch of unusual strength.

The singing, talking and character change work of The Skippers, a versatile pair of performers was well applauded.

ACADEMY OF MUSIC

A new program was presented yesterday at the Academy and one that is sure to please. McRae and Levering have a nifty lyrical act and perform some difficult stunts on wheels of many different shapes and sizes. Another act that pleases is Fagan, Merrick and Thurston. This merry trio appears as the "top," the coachman and the messenger boy and they dispense some lively comedy in songs and stories. Lewis Morton & Co., in "Betty's Haul" present one of the best sketches that has been seen here in a long time.

THE FALCONS

HELD A DELIGHTFUL SOCIAL AND DANCING PARTY

The Falcons, an organization composed of young men of Centralville, held a social and dancing party in Associate hall last night. There was a large attendance and the evening was spent in an enjoyable manner. Music for dancing was furnished by Kirtland's orchestra.

The success of the affair was due to the efficient work of the following officials: General manager, George A. Flinders; assistant general manager, Patrick F. Flannery; floor director, John A. Bourke; assistant floor director, Leo P. Ward; secretary, James W. McEvoy; treasurer, George F. Stewart.

SOCIAL AND FRATERNAL

The regular meeting of Lowell council, Royal Arcanum, was held last night and at the conclusion of the business meeting whist was enjoyed. The following were the prize winners at whist: First prizes, McKeon and Santum; second prizes, George McElroy and John F. Westwood, and third prizes, G. Gurney and Fred Brown.

The schedule for games of whist to constitute the tournament in which Lowell, Industry and Highland councils will enter teams, is as follows: Feb. 23, Lowell at Highland; March 1, Lowell at Industry; March 2, Highland at Lowell; March 15, Highland at Lowell; March 23, Industry at Highland; April 5, Highland at Industry; and April 6, Industry at Lowell.

LABOR COUNCIL

Held Largely Attended Meeting

A well attended and interesting meeting of the Lowell Trades and Labor council was held last night in the hall in Middle street, the feature of the evening being an address on legislative procedure by William H. O'Brien, president of the Central Labor union of Boston. Mr. O'Brien served three terms in the house of representatives and is well acquainted with the methods of the workings of the lower house of the state legislature.

H. KIRK WHITE

GAVE TALK ON "THE PANAMA CANAL"

An interesting illustrated lecture on "The Panama Canal" was held at the Whistler house in Worthen street last night. There was a good sized audience, despite the inclemency of the weather, and the lecture, which was delivered by Mr. H. Kirk White, proved to be enlightening.

Before the pictures were shown on the screen the speaker dwelt at some length on the worldwide advantage of the canal.

GREELEY'S DAUGHTER UNITED STATES

Sends Greetings to the Friends of Her Father Will Endeavor to Bring About End of Trouble in Honduras

AMHERST, N. H., Feb. 3.—The 100th anniversary of the birth of Horace Greeley, which is being observed here today, has called to the mind of many of the oldest residents, whether or not any of the children born to Mr. Greeley in his union with Miss Mary Cheney on July 5, 1836, are yet in the land of the living.

Extensive research and investigation has resulted in the information that only one child of Mr. and Mrs. Horace Greeley survives. She is Mrs. Gabrielle Greeley Clendenin, the wife of Rev. Dr. Frank M. Clendenin of West Chester, avenue, New York city. Their country home, however, and where they spend most of their time, is in Chappaqua, Westchester county, New York.

It is upon a farm of about 75 acres and it was purchased by Mr. Greeley himself in 1852. It was one of the spots he loved and where he went to go for quiet and recreation.

The beautiful little village of Chappaqua, made famous by Greeley, nestles among the Westchester hills as picturesque as of old. Here may be seen the two rows of evergreen trees set out by Mr. Greeley and they have flourished and grown so tall that their branches touch and form a beautiful avenue of shade.

Here Mrs. Clendenin, with her husband and daughter, spends many happy hours surrounded with many memories of her famous father, and among them are letters and manuscripts of priceless value.

She has traveled much and it is said inherits the genius and ability of her father.

To his birthplace and his friends she sends greetings from his only living child, and this article from her father's pen written not long before his death.

"My life has been busy and anxious but not joyless. I have been spared to see the end of giant wrongs which I once deemed invincible in this century, and to note the silent upspringing and growth of principal and influences which I hail as destined to root out some of the most flagrant and prevailing evils that yet remain.

"I realize that each generation is destined to confront new and peculiar perils, yet I trust that progress is a general law of our being and that the ill and woes of the future shall be less crushing than those of the bloody and hateful past.

"So looking calmly, yet humbly, for that close of my mortal career which cannot be far distant, I reverently thank God for the blessings even now in the past and with an awe that is not fear and a consciousness of merit that does not exclude hope I await the opening before my steps at the gates of the eternal world."

WASHINGTON, Feb. 3.—The government of President Davilla of Honduras, in the opinion of this government, is tottering. Upon the arrival of General Bonilla at Puerto Cortez the United States will tender its good offices to the revolutionary commander in an effort to bring about cessation of the internal strife in Honduras.

President Davilla has already intimated that the friendly intervention of the United States would be welcome in order to avert useless bloodshed. The American consequently will express its willingness to both parties to exert its good offices in re-establishing peace. The commander of the Guatemalan, therefore, will tender the mediation of the United States to General Bonilla when he arrives at Puerto Cortez which has been evacuated by the government forces.

BIG FIRE BROKE OUT IN LEE

LEE, Feb. 3.—A very high wind and a temperature of five degrees below zero hampered the firemen of this town today in fighting a blaze that destroyed two business blocks on Main street in the heart of the business district. One of the blocks was of brick, the other of wood and both were two-story structures. The property was owned by St. George's Episcopal church. The fire originated in the brick block in the novelty store of E. B. Ramsdell. The drug store of A. G. Hoehner was burned out and the tenants on the second floors lost all they had. All in the buildings had plenty of time in which to make their escape. The loss is estimated at between $30,000 and $40,000 with partial insurance.

ONE MAN KILLED

Carfloat Crashed Into the Fall River Liner Plymouth

NEW YORK, Feb. 3.—Three hundred passengers aboard the Fall River liner Plymouth, from Fall River, were thrown into a panic this forenoon when a carfloat, loaded with freight cars and towed by a tugboat, crashed into the vessel in the East river, off 62nd street. The steamship's passengers escaped injury but General Manager Nickerson of the Fall River line received word that a man on the float had been killed by the crash.

The man killed was Frank Thomas, a deckhand on the float. The shock of the collision tilted the float, causing several of the cars to slide on the tracks. Thomas was thrown to the deck of the float across the tracks and one of the cars ran over him, killing him instantly.

A large, jagged hole in the Plymouth's port bow gives mute testimony to the violence of the collision. The Plymouth was not damaged below the water line, however, and proceeded under her own power to her dock. General Manager Nickerson charges the blame of the crash to the captain of the tug.

Vault Blown Open

Masked Men Got $100 and Then Made Their Escape

DAVENPORT, Ia., Feb. 3.—Three masked men blew open the vault in the Farmers bank at Sheppard, Ill., this morning, worked the combination on the silver chest and obtained $100. A woman across the street heard the explosion and gave the alarm but the men escaped through a window, and reaching a buggy they had stolen from a nearby farm, they drove to Rock Island, where the horse was found this morning.

They had charged the safe with nitroglycerine and were prepared to explode it when discovered. This safe was one that contained $1000.

CORONER'S JURY

Says Explosion Was Unavoidable Accident

NEW YORK, Feb. 3.—"An unavoidable accident" was the verdict of nine members of the coroner's jury which has been hearing evidence on the causes of the gas explosion in the New York Central power house on Dec. 13 last, by which 13 persons lost their lives. "The explosion was due to the negligence of the company or the company in charge of the yards" was the finding of the three other members of the jury.

The split verdict was handed into Coroner Holtzhauser early today, after six hours' deliberation by the jury. The verdict as rendered served to exonerate Albert Seagrants, the engineer of the train which ran off the end of a track and caused a break in a gas pipe, and he was released from custody. He was arrested at the time of the explosion and had been paroled to await the inquest. It was said that the difference of opinion among the jurors was due principally to the fact that some of them thought the pipes in the yard were not properly protected.

Coroner Holtzhauser was asked if the matter under such a verdict would be sent to the grand jury and he replied that it would not.

SECRET DIVORCE

WAS REVEALED BY BAIN'S MARRIAGE

NEW YORK, Feb. 3.—The announcement in the New York papers that Ferdinand R. Bain and Mrs. Gertrude B. Miller were married on Wednesday in New York caused considerable surprise and interest in Poughkeepsie, where the former Mrs. Bain and her three beautiful daughters are members of the higher social circle.

Surprise was due to the fact that Poughkeepsie society had never heard that Mr. and Mrs. Bain were divorced. It was learned yesterday that Mr. Bain obtained a decree in California a year ago, and that, although his wife was represented by counsel there, she made no vigorous opposition to a divorce on the ground of abandonment.

Mrs. Miller (now Mrs. Bain) is also well known in Poughkeepsie. Her first husband was Mr. Peft, head of Peft, Weller & Co. After a divorce she became the wife of Charles Miller, from master, who had a fortune of $1,000,000. When he died he left $300,000 to her.

Mrs. Miller engaged the services of Mr. Bain in the management of this fortune. Mrs. Bain became annoyed by their meetings, and on one occasion caused a scene in the New York Central station, in Poughkeepsie, when she met Mrs. Miller there in company with Mr. Bain.

The Bains separated two years ago and the husband came to New York, where he engaged in the realty business. He went to California a year ago. It is said he has provided a fortune for his former wife and his daughters.

MORIARTY LOST

Harry Powers Given the Decision

LAWRENCE, Feb. 3.—Harry Powers of Brooklyn gained the decision over Jimmy Moriarty of Lowell at the Unity club here last evening after 13 rounds of very even boxing. The fact that Powers did most of the leading, although not landing very often, gained for him the award.

In the semifinal Young Donohue of Lawrence was outwitted by Jimmy Quinlan of Danvers by about 20 pounds, but received the decision in the fifth round, as Quinlan "batted after being warned. Donohue was the cleverer of the two, and probably would have been awarded the decision anyway.

In the two preliminaries Kid Burke of Lawrence knocked out Young Marsh of Lawrence in one round. Young Scully of Lawrence dropped Tommy Hurst of Lawrence in four rounds.

QUILL GOT DECISION

BROCKTON, Feb. 3.—Boxing his first battle in his home city in years, Tommy Quill met one of the hardest men of his career in layward Briggs, a fellow-townsmen, in the opening meeting of the Shoe City A. C. at the Palace rink last night. Quill being given the decision by Referee Stanton Abbott because of his superior work in the last two rounds.

Up to that time it was about an even thing, the colored boy surprising his friends by his willingness to clash with his more experienced opponent.

The early rounds were rather tame, Quill apparently holding back for the final rounds. Briggs, however, frequently broke into Quill, but repeatedly held and protected himself. Quill, too, was willing to mix and often landed hard blows to the body.

The best milling of the entire bout of 12 rounds came at the end of the 11th session. Quill worked both hands over onto Briggs toward the finish, and had the colored man holding to save himself. But disregarding the bell and hammered away at each other until separated by the referee and seconds.

The last round was the fastest of the 12, Quill landing at will in the early stages and Briggs doing good work at the finish. Both men were in good condition and as strong at the finish as at the start.

The decision was not altogether satisfactory to the 1200 spectators present.

The opening bout between Young Claus of Whitman and Frank Murphy of Brockton, scheduled for six rounds, ended in the second, Claus being the winner.

In the semifinal bout Jimmy Reardon of this city defeated Young Lemoyne of Webster in the third round.

HOUGH SHADES WILLIAMS

LAWRENCE, Feb. 3.—Barney Williams saved himself from punishment at Leo Hough's hands last night at the Lancaster A. C. by resorting to constant clinching tactics at critical periods, but he put up a good, game fight and came out of it with credit.

Hough is not quite back in his old form yet, after several months' layoff because of his injured hand, but he was the aggressor throughout the bout and shaded Williams in every round.

Barney frequently had Hough on the ropes, but was unable to land any of his feisty blows. Williams repeatedly jolted Barney with left jabs on the jaw. In the last round, Williams showed signs of distress.

OPERA STOCK CO.

Will Begin Rehearsals Tomorrow

The new stock company of the Lowell Opera house will open with "The Charity Ball" on Saturday, February 11. Manager Ward is now securing the players and assures the public that the company will be first class in every respect.

Among the pieces selected to be given although not in this order—are: "The Squaw Man," "The Lion and the Mouse," "Gilda," "Cameo Kirby," "The Battle," "Arizona," "The Chimeras," "Merely Mary Ann," "The Wolf," "The Blue Mouse," "Our New Minister," and "Mrs. Temple's Telegram."

Pieces which have not been seen here are "Cameo Kirby" in which Nat C. Goodwin and Dustin Farnum have scored strongly; "Merely Mary Ann" the best light comedy offered; Eleanor Robson ever appeared in, and "The Battle," Cleveland Moffatt's striking study of capital vs. labor, in which Lilian Lockaye was starred.

"Arizona," the strongest melodrama Augustus Thomas ever wrote, and in which Theodore Thomas appeared, "Gilda," a snappy comedy by the late Clyde Fitch, "The Chimeras," the ironical study of social aspirers by the same dramatist, "Our New Minister," a homely, likable New England offering "The Squaw Man," which only one stock company ever attempted.

The scene painters are already at work preparing elaborate sets for the opening production and the first rehearsal will begin tomorrow.

WORST BLIZZARD

Montreal Has Had in Ten Years

MONTREAL, Feb. 3.—After sixteen hours of the worst blizzard Montreal has experienced in a decade, the skies cleared today and there was prospect that before night the railroads and street car companies would be able to clear their main lines for something like normal traffic. But the opening of the business day found street car service still practically at a standstill and trains very late. Hospitals and police stations have been filled with hundreds, several frost-bitten, and a number of horses have perished on the streets.

BONAPARTE TO ENTER JOURNALISM

BALTIMORE, Feb. 3.—It was announced today that Charles J. Bonaparte, secretary of the navy and attorney general in the Roosevelt administration, will enter daily journalism as contributing editor of the Baltimore Sun. Though a republican in national politics, Mr. Bonaparte is an independent in local affairs. He is president of the National Municipal League.

ROBBED IN STORM

Man Was Held Up at the Point of a Revolver

BOSTON, Feb. 3.—Held up at the point of a revolver while he was driving through Eastern avenue, Chelsea, yesterday afternoon, two robbers attacked Winfred H. French of Lynn, a driver for the Fresh Ice Cream company.

With a threat that he had over what money he had in his possession, or suffer the consequences of a severe beating French complied and handed over $9.

The robbers, who had jumped onto the footboard of the wagon to secure the booty then left, warning French not to tell the police, and escaped to East Boston.

It was one of the boldest if not the boldest daylight robbery in Chelsea in many years and Chief Shannon and every member of the force were active yesterday afternoon and last night in their efforts to apprehend the men.

French was on his way from East Boston to Lynn, and Eastern avenue, which bounds the tower east side of Chelsea and which is a part of the state road, was the most available route for him to take.

The hour was about 2 o'clock and at the time there was a high wind which was blowing the snow in his face. The horses were walking slowly and at a point which is described by French as between the old sluiceway at the foot of Bellingham street and the Revere rubber works the two men sprang up in front of them.

Jumping to the footboard one of the thieves pointed a revolver at French's face and the other, pulling the reins from his hands, stopped the horses.

The man with the gun yelled to French, "Come on Bill, hand over your stuff." French looked at the man for a second. Another demand was made by the robber and French quickly realized that he had but little time to act. He was without a weapon and handed over to the man with the revolver the $9. The men then jumped from the wagon and made a quick run along the state road across the Chelsea street bridge into East Boston.

With the escape of the thieves French again picked up the reins and hastened his horses along Eastern avenue to the Revere line. In a restaurant he telephoned the Chelsea police and made known what had happened.

CUT OF $144,877.55

Has Been Made by the Committee on Appropriations

It is Still Necessary to Make a Reduction of $19,375—Street Department Asked for $210,000 and Was Given $154,000

The appropriations committee went to city hall with its big knife last night and hewed huge chunks from department estimates. The committee, however, will have to do some more trimming as the estimates are still $19,375.02 beyond the amount available.

The chips flew when the committee struck the street department's camp. The committee gave this department the hook as well as the knife and trimmed it to the tune of $68,678.60. It was the fifth meeting of the committee and the total cut up to date is $144,877.55. The committee will meet again Monday night.

The Incidental Fund

The incidental fund was the first proposition considered by the committee last night and the question came on the advisability of the mayor having control of the fund. Councilman Chapman was of the opinion that a certain sum should be transferred from the incidental fund to the mayor's account for sundries, and that the incidental fund be made entirely the property of the city council, to be used by that body at its own discretion. Action in the matter was deferred.

The law department was allowed the same appropriation allowed at the first meeting, $5,024.00. The city weigher's estimate of $810 was not sliced.

The Park Department

The park department felt the knife quite keenly. The labor estimate of $15,000 was cut to $10,000, the amount spent last year, and the "other expenses" were cut from $5,429.10 to $4,000. The committee allowed $800 for the care of trees; playgrounds and supervision, $1,000; repairing school grounds, $500.

Lucy Larcum park proved a bone of contention. Mr. Tracey said he would like to see the park finished this year, but there were certain items mentioned in the summary that he thought were unnecessary. The amount asked for was $1,800 and on motion of Mr. Flanagan that amount was reduced to $1,000.

The Mayor's Fund

The committee went back again to the incidental fund and the ordinance relative to it was for incidental fund money went over the fund to see what items might be transferred to the mayor's account.

The mayor's sundries account, after a deal of juggling with amounts and the incidental fund was made to read $790, leaving $1,010. Other transfers were made from "incidentals" including the care of the High Street church clock to the fire department, a matter of $25.

The Fire Department

To the auditor's fund from "incidentals," $400 was added for auditing books; to the treasurer, $90, for rent of safe deposit boxes.

The committee voted on to the fire department and for "salaries and wages," the amount asked for, $140,000 was allowed, and $26,000 for "other expenses," including High Street clock. The department was allowed $166,000, which is $3000 more than was allowed by last year's committee.

The park commission asked for $10,000 for the 10th department and the committee voted to allow $6000.

The committee moved on to the police department and started in on the patrolmen. The amount asked for the pay of patrolmen was $109,862.50. It was finally decided to dump all salaries including board of police, commissioned officers, patrolmen, employees, pensioners and special duty men, the whole amounting to $166,524.12. That was the amount asked for and $130,000 was allowed. For other expenses $6050 was asked and $5000 was allowed.

Weights and Measures

The sealer of weights and measures gets $7450, which provides for raising the salary of the deputy sealer to $16 a week, but the "other expenses," estimated at $1000, were cut to $450. The net cut on these estimates was $550.

School Department

Schools asked for $386,000, but the committee's knife cut this to $380,000. The lighting department had previously been allowed $29,000, but this was raised to $101,039.25.

Street Department

Street department estimates of $203,993.86, which included salaries, wages and "other expenses," and this sum was sliced to $154,000, $114,000 of this for salaries and wages, $46,000 for "other expenses" and $5000 for new sidewalks. This was a single cut of nearly $50,000.

The sewers estimate was also generously sliced, the salaries and wages coming down $3884 to $12,000 and "other expenses" being cut to $3000, a drop of $4878.

Supply Department

The supply department was allowed $5718 for salaries, a slight increase, $700 for "other expenses," and $300 for advertising. This was a cut of $501 in totals.

The city messenger's department was reverted to and the matter of some deserving raises in salaries was considered, the committee having previously voted not to allow the cash necessary. An increase of $234 was allowed this appropriation. Adjourned.

DOUBLE TRAGEDY

Man Killed Girl and Himself

HARRISONBURG, Va., Feb. 3.—Sitting on the steps of the country church at Naked Creek, near here yesterday, Pittsburgh, a young farmer, shot and killed his betrothed, Miss Cora Turner, aged 20 years, and committed suicide.

Cornet was jealous of the attentions of another farmer. When the girl did not fall at his first shot he reloaded and fired again. The girl lay in intense pain for several minutes and died. Cornet watched her and calmly loading his gun, turned it against himself. Death was instantaneous.

The Sirolin Sentinel

Sirolin (Pronounced Sir-o-lin): The celebrated Swiss remedy for coughs and colds.

LOWELL, MASS., FEBRUARY 3, 1911

Teach the Children To Use Sirolin.

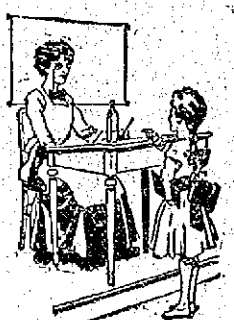

For Coughs and Colds

Sound lungs are more than half the battle in the building up of a healthy body.

That's why parents should take great care to see that their children's lungs are properly developed; that they are kept sound in tissue with an expansive power in proportion to the weight and height of the body.

This can best be done by—

- 1st. Vigorous physical exercises, with stress laid on the setting-up exercises which develop the upper part of the body.
- 2nd. The right kind of food and plenty of it.
- 3rd. Fresh air.
- 4th. The prevention of colds, and their prompt cure if they are contracted. This can be accomplished by the regular use of Sirolin.

THERE was a bottle of Sirolin on the teacher's desk in the primary school, and when the visitor had his attention attracted by it, the teacher said:

"I keep it there for daily use. You know how children come to school continually with colds and coughs. These coughs point to the fact that the outcome may be consumption, and although I urge on parents to have their little ones provided with Sirolin at home, I know that domestic circumstances often forbid, and I make it a practice to administer it here in the school-room. It may save them from contracting consumption."

Sirolin contains no morphine, codeine, habit-forming or constipating drug.

Sirolin is something more than a remedy for coughs and colds. It is a builder of healthy tissues. Its action upon the lungs and bronchial passages is reconstructive and invigorating. Upon the whole system it acts as a tonic.

Sirolin contains no narcotics, or other harmful drugs. Children like it, for it has a pleasant, slightly sweet, syrupy taste.

Sirolin is the world's best remedy for coughs, colds, gripes, influenza, whooping-cough and all afflictions of the pulmonary organs.

MAIL SUBSIDY BILL

VICE PRESIDENT SHERMAN

Saved From Defeat by Vice-Pres. Sherman's Vote

WASHINGTON, Feb. 2.—For the first time in the history of the government yesterday the vice president of the United States exercised his constitutional prerogative of casting a vote to break up a tie after three successive roll calls in the senate.

By his tie vote he saved from defeat the ocean mail, or ship, subsidy bill, and by the third he forced an adjournment of the senate on a vote having direct bearing on the resolution looking to the election of senators by direct vote of the people.

The vote on the passage of the subsidy bill, both in the senate proper, stood 39 ayes and 39 nays, and on adjournment 37 ayes to 37 nays. On all three occasions the vice president voted in the affirmative.

Another notable occurrence concerning the vote on the subsidy bill was the absence of the new democratic senator from West Virginia, Clarence W. Watson. He had taken his seat early in the day as the successor to Senator Atkins, but was in the senate chamber only a few minutes during the session, and voted on only one roll call.

New Senator Disappears

This vote was cast on an amendment offered by Mr. Shively of Indiana, regulating the aggregate expenditures which may be made under the terms of the bill. On this provision the new West Virginia senator cast his vote in the affirmative, thus indicating his opposition to the measure.

After voting he disappeared, and when the next ballot was taken Mr. Scott, his republican colleague, announced Mr. Watson's "absence," saying that he was away "on important business."

The result on this roll call was not so close as to render material the presence or absence of any senator and no notice was taken of the fact that Mr. Watson was not in attendance.

Only a few senators gave heed to Mr. Scott's announcement, and they laughed good-naturedly over it. Their enjoyment, if significant, passed without explanation, and by most senators was attributed to the failure of a new senator to embrace his first opportunity to make a record.

After the final result became known the opponents of the bill, including all of the democrats, realized that Mr. Watson's absence prevented the defeat of the bill. Every democrat present during the roll call voted against the measure.

MAKE YOUR OWN HAIR TONIC

A SPECIALIST'S ADVICE

In a recent issue of the New York Herald published a special article on the care of the hair, in which was given the formula for a home-made Hair Tonic, which was highly recommended for its remarkable hair-growing properties, as well as for stopping falling hair, revitalizing the hair roots, destroying the dandruff germ and restoring gray hair to its natural color. This article was of special interest to me, as the formula was one which I myself have prescribed in countless cases with most astonishing results. I remember one case in particular, in which I prescribed it for a man who had been bald for many years and in less than two months after he began its use his head was completely covered with a luxuriant growth of rich, glossy hair, thus proving that hair can be made to grow on a balding scalp, notwithstanding the opinion of many persons to the contrary.

For the benefit of those who have not seen it before, I give the formula: Take 1 ounce of Bay Rum, 1 ounce of Lavender de Compose, one-half ounce of Menthol Crystals, Dissolve in 1 pint of Crystalline Perfume, and add the Lavender de Compose; shake thoroughly and apply night and morning to the roots of the hair, rubbing into the scalp with the fingers. This preparation contains no coloring matter, but restores gray hair to its natural color by its action on the hair roots. If you desire it, I will send you a teaspoonful of To-Kalon Perfume, which combines perfectly with the other ingredients and imparts a most pleasing scent.

Before publication we presented this prescription to the Riker-Jaynes Drug Co., of this city, and they state that they have tried it and found it very effective. Patrons who report most astonishing results from its use.

THE FRATERNITIES

JAMES E. FIFE,
Chief Ranger Court General Shields, F. of A.

Court General Shields, F. of A., Its History and Officers

Court General Shields, No. 46, Foresters of America, is one of the foremost fraternal and benevolent organizations in the city and will celebrate the 21st anniversary of its inception this month. The court has made rapid progress since its formation, increasing from a charter membership of about 60, until at the present time it boasts of over 300. One of the interesting facts in connection with this court is that the members work in concord and the offices of honor have always been filled by men of ability, who have vied with each other in increasing the membership and placing the organization on the high basis which it enjoys at the present time.

The court has been rather unfortunate in many respects, inasmuch as from time to time its treasury has been nearly depleted, owing to the amount of money which has been paid out for sick and death benefits, but owing to the zealous work of the members the organization has always been able to weather the storm and come out with a substantial amount in the treasury after fulfilling every obligation.

Court General Shields was instituted on Feb. 27, 1890, the organization having been perfected by prominent local men interested in Forestry. The court meets on the second and fourth Thursday of every month at Foresters hall, and a feature of the meetings is the large attendance of members brought about by the interesting programs furnished, which include lectures, addresses, smoketalks, etc.

The court has paid out large sums of money during the past few years, but at the present time there is a good amount in the treasury. During the past 20 years it has paid on an average of eight funeral and five widow benefits per year and about an average of $300 per year in sick benefits.

The court will celebrate the anniversary of its organization on Thursday, Feb. 23d, by holding a smoketalk and general good time at Foresters hall.

A CLEVER RUSE Was Worked to "Beat" a Hotel

BOSTON, Feb. 3.—A clever ruse to "beat" a hotel for food and entertainment came to light yesterday when George E. Weller was before Judge Stevens in the criminal session of the superior court on indictment for larceny and procuring fraudulently entertainment at an inn.

Suffering from paralysis Weller was carried into the courtroom. Owing to his condition and to the fact that restitution had been made he was allowed to go to Canada, where friends will care for him.

He was brought here from Haverburg, where he had served a sentence in the penitentiary and his case was put over until yesterday in order that he might receive treatment in a hospital.

He registered at the Touraine March 25 and when he left he was indebted to the hotel for $108. After he had been there a few days some one called on the telephone inquiring for him. The person falsely represented him to be the president of a trust company.

He told the clerk to inform Weller that his child had died. Incidentally the clerk was told to "treat him all right." Trust him, tend to his needs and let him have any money he wants. The hotel people were inclined to assist the stranger in his hour of affliction.

"We broke the news gently to him," said one of the employees. Learning of the death of the child Weller failed. Coffee and brandy were quickly obtained. Each was given to him and he soon revived.

He had to leave the hotel at once. He was indebted to the hotel. He drew a check for $125, suggested that $75 of it be applied toward his bill and he went away with $50.

In due course the check was returned unpaid. The law was then brought into use.

Next heard of Weller he was in Haverburg under sentence. On his release he was turned over to a Boston inspector, but he was not the same man physically that he had been in the Touraine on March 31.

Dist. Atty. Pelletier told the judge that full restitution had been made to the hotel and he felt the case should be placed on file so that the defendant could go to Canada, where friends promised to care for him.

WHITE STAR LINE

PLANNING TO GO TO SOUTH BOSTON

BOSTON, Feb. 2.—It was reported in steamship circles yesterday that the White Star line would very probably move from the Hoosac docks and have South Boston as a terminal. The Commonwealth dock has recently been leased by the state to the New Haven road and it is said Vice President Byrnes of the road is planning a huge passenger pier at South Boston in the near future and that negotiations will be begun with the White Star line to lease it.

The report is given color by the fact that Mr. Byrnes, Collector Curtis and other government and steamship officials, visited the White Star pier upon the arrival of the Romanic Wednesday. It was pointed out to Mr. Byrnes that Boston could not expect to have larger steamers until greater docking facilities are provided. The Arabic, which will enter the Boston service this summer, is too long for the present White Star berth.

It was suggested to the officials that East Boston would be the best place to follow the line, but others urged that South Boston was the more accessible and offered attractions in the way of railroad connections that could not be found at East Boston. Another strong argument in favor of South Boston was that carriages going to steamers would not have to cross the ferries.

At the office of the White Star line it was stated that the matter had not been considered officially. The line will have five steamers running to Boston this summer: The Arabic, Zealand and Camille to Liverpool, the Romanic and Caporic to the Mediterranean, also the three Red Star boats, the Mantau, Menominee and Marquette.

MAY BE INSANE

Man Wanted to See Mayor Fitzgerald

BOSTON, Feb. 2.—A man who is believed to be dangerously insane walked into the mayor's office yesterday morning and after demanding to see the mayor pulled off his coat, with the apparent purpose of carrying out his threats to "clean the place out."

He was captured by the police while yelling threats of personal violence at the members of the mayor's office staff and preparing to carry out his declaration of war.

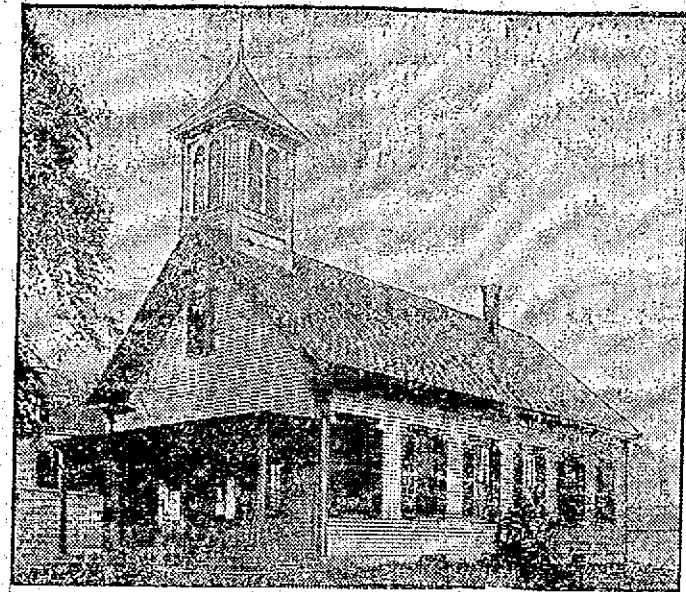

He gave two policemen an ugly fight before he was finally looked up. One of the mayor's secretaries placed the handcuffs on him while the policeman held him.

The man, who is at present at the Pier 9 Farm for the insane under the observation of alienists, declared that his name is Henry Stewart and that he lives in California. No weapon was found on him.

FOR WATER SUPPLY VALIANT, TESTING MOTORCYCLE FOR POSSIBLE SCOUTING USE

THE TEWKSBURY TOWN HALL

Town of Tewksbury to Have One Suitable to Its Needs

The real topic of conversation in Tewksbury these days has to do with the proposed water supply. There is a movement on foot to install a public water supply and if energy, push, enthusiasm and ability amount to anything the proposition will go through all right.

Dr. H. M. Larrabee is at the head of the movement and down Tewksbury way Larrabee sports success. A temporary committee was appointed some time ago to talk the matter up and investigate conditions. Last night a meeting was held at Dr. Larrabee's that after two years the town could buy the water works at cost plus expense or loss of any. Dr. Larrabee further stated that the proposed corporation would not sell to any other private corporation, so that the town will have nothing to fear from speculators.

At the meeting last night it was voted to investigate the source of supply by driving wells and work along this line will be begun immediately. Money enough has been gathered for this purpose. It was also voted at the meeting to incorporate as soon as possible.

A hydro-pneumatic supply has been decided upon. It will provide for a six-inch main in Main street, Pleasant street, Lee street, through B street to the Centre, and to W. A. Patten's residence in North street. There will be tanks at the end of the mains and the pressure will be by compressed air. There will be two cylinder tanks, 40 by 8, and a small engine to use on common supply and a 30 horse power gasoline engine to use in case of fire. This engine would send three streams much higher than the town hall and as high as the church belfry. The supply will be obtained from driven wells and there is no dearth of water in Tewksbury. There are two distinct veins that seem to cover the entire centre. The first vein is met at a distance of 14 feet and the second at a distance 24 feet. The second vein is the most vigorous of the two.

It is understood that 45 takers would put the proposed water supply on a paying basis and by that number have already expressed their willingness and eagerness, in fact, to become takers. Dr. Larrabee is especially enthusiastic over the proposition and he feels sure that there would be at least 150 takers within a year. All that is required now is a little encouragement. It will be necessary of course to take the matter to the legislature in order to get a charter and there is no time to lose. Dr. Larrabee says he wants to see the thing start right off the reel.

MATRIMONIAL

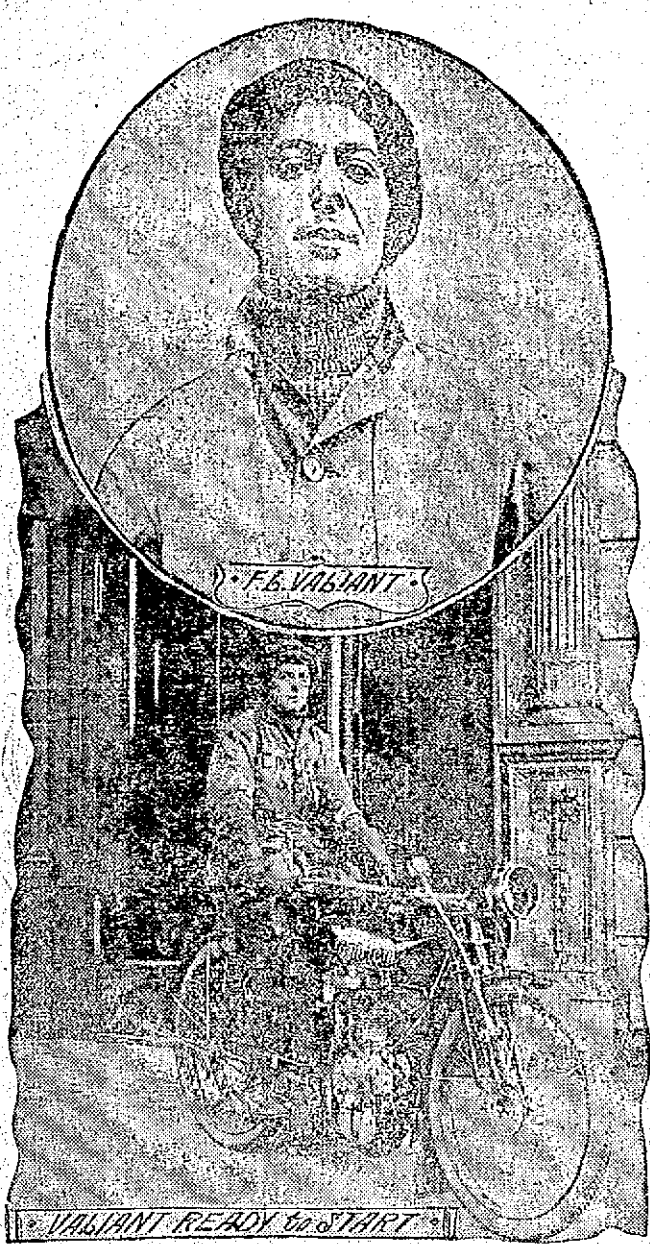

Mr. Patrick Creagan and Miss Catherine McCabe were united in marriage Wednesday afternoon by Rev. Fr. O'Brien of St. Peter's church at the parochial residence. Mr. Michael McAndrews was the best man, and Miss Margaret McCabe, a sister of the bride, the bridesmaid. The bride was attractively gowned in white muslin, with white silk trimmings, while the bridesmaid wore white muslin. Little of the valley completed the effect. At the close of the ceremony a wedding reception was held at 212 Charles street and many called to offer congratulations to the newly married ones. A wedding trip to New York and Washington will be enjoyed, after which Mr. and Mrs. Creagan will live at 212 Charles street, and will be at home after March 1.

TWO AUTOMOBILES TO BE OFFERED AS PRIZES TO BASEBALL PLAYERS

CHICAGO, Feb. 3.—Tentative plans for the creation of a baseball Hall of Fame on broader lines than anything of the kind hitherto attempted, were announced today by a Detroit manufacturer. He offered to put two automobiles into the hands of a committee of five or seven newspapermen to be awarded at the end of each playing season to the player in each major league, who, in the opinion of the committee, had done the most for his team in the season.

Details of the proposition such as the size of the committee, its selection and the method of arriving at the choice of the player entitled to the prize in each league, have not been worked out. The offer stands for a period of five years and will be open to all players in each major league, exclusive of the managers, whether bench or playing managers. The idea, as explained, is to eliminate the question of batting, fielding or pitching averages as arbitrary determining factors and to reward the players who do the most to advance the best interests of their respective teams in the two pennant races. In addition to taking into consideration the performances of a player in batting, fielding, pitching, base running and other departments, it is intended to include loyalty, deportment and adherence to discipline both on and off the field.

Being the composite opinion of a committee of newspapermen and not based on records, the choice would carry with it no official recognition. The winners would be in the position of the football players chosen annually by Walter Camp for his All-American

VALIANT READY TO START

NEW YORK, Feb. 3.—Frank Libbey, States army, Federal building, Chicago. The bearer hereof, Mr. Frank Libbey Valiant of New York city, starts within a few days for Chicago, riding a single cylinder motorcycle, with the view of demonstrating its value as a courier during actual field service. Motorcycles are used in foreign armies, but, I believe, have never been used in our service. This test should demonstrate their value for use as couriers. Mr. Valiant will gladly bear any reply to this letter you may care to intrust with him.

eleven, except that there would be two prize winners instead of eleven, and the choice would represent the personal opinions of five or seven men instead of an individual.

TOO MUCH BUTTER

3,000,000 POUNDS TO BE SHIPPED ABROAD

CHICAGO, Feb. 3.—Three million pounds of butter must be shipped abroad during the next few weeks in order to prevent heavy losses to cold storage holdings, according to commission men. One dealer, who is credited with holding 10,000 tubs of highest grade butter for which he paid 32 cents a pound, is now selling it at 25 cents a pound.

"Low grade butter is affected much more than the better creamery products," said a well known commission merchant yesterday. "The great trouble with the butter market is that too high a price is asked for stock not worth it. For five years the commission men have been fighting each other and now that they have brought about this condition they must take their punishment."

ROOSEVELT'S VISIT

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Feb. 3.—Theodore Roosevelt's visit here next month will be directly on his work as a naturalist. According to a telegram received yesterday by Dr. J. T. Scherrer, president of the Throop university, the colonel says he will arrive in Pasadena the morning of March 21. In the afternoon he expects to pass some time with John Burroughs and John Muir, who both have devoted years to scientific research in the west. In the evening Colonel Roosevelt will deliver an address on "Zoology of Africa."

CUT IN PASSENGER FARES

CHICAGO, Feb. 3.—A deep cut in passenger fares to San Francisco on account of the convention of the National Educational association in that city next summer will be made by western roads. It is understood that the rate from Chicago to the California metropolis will be fixed at $62.50 for the round trip, a sum that is now charged for going one way. The convention will be held from July 5th to July 14.
